SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. A report dated 22 December 1948 stated that a military pact exists between the Dominican Republic and Nicaragua, the principal feature of which was a promise on the part of the Dominican Republic to help Nicaragua in the event that Guatemala should attack Nicaragua or continue to support the Caribbean Legion. This aid was to be in the form of arms, ships, and if necessary, men.
2. It has now been reported that President Juan Peron of Argentina also signed the pact. Argentina made no promises of material aid to either country, but signed the pact simply for the purpose of guaranteeing the good faith of the two principal parties.
- 25X1X6 3. According to [redacted] only four or five copies of this pact exist in Nicaragua and all are held in La Curva by persons close to General Somoza. One is held by Guillermo Lang, a supporter of Somoza, who has been active in obtaining imported equipment for the Guardia Nacional.
