SUBJECT Report from Slovene Christian Socialist Party

PLACE ACQUIRED 25X1A6a

DATE OF INFO 25X1X6

1. A report from Slovenia was recently received by political leaders abroad, which purports to be an authentic message from the leaders of the Slovene Christian Socialist Party inside Yugoslavia. A precis of the salient points of the text follows:
 - a. The Slovene Christian Socialist Party is the strongest resistance group in Slovenia;
 - b. The differences between the Catholic factions there are now resolved as a result of common opposition to the regime;
 - c. The Slovene Christian Socialist Party desires an autonomous Slovenia within a Central European-Danubian Confederation. This group rejects a Centralized Federated Yugoslavia and the concept of "Yugoslovenstvo";
 - d. The group advocates governmental and economic reforms patterned along Christian Socialist lines;
 - e. The Party claims that the Slovene Liberation Movement -in-Exile is phlegmatic and ineffective. It demands concrete action and the establishment of regular communication with the homeland;
 - f. It advises that the former Slovene Christian Socialist Party leaders Edward Kocbek, Tone Fajfar and Dr. Marijan Breclj have refused to discontinue their collaboration with the Tito regime.

Comment: It is unlikely that the report, in its entirety, expresses the combined opinion of Solar, Gosar, Fabjan and Besednjak. Younger Slovene Christian Socialist Party elements are extremely disillusioned with the Tito regime and opposed to any future Yugoslavia under a Serb leadership.
