1. [REDACTED] stated that he had "good reason to believe" that the Czech Government might break off diplomatic relations with Iran during the week beginning 2 March 1949.

25X1A6a

[REDACTED] Comment. No details were obtainable by source, who commented that he knew of only mild tension between the Iranian and Czech Governments, but that the Iranian Government's delay in arriving at an agreement in the Czech State Air Lines negotiations may possibly provide the motive for the break.
