- 1. The following printing establishments and outlets utilized for propaganda purposes by the Partido Socialista Popular (PSP-Cuban Communist Party) are located at Calle Mercaderes #162, a two story building in the old city of Habana. The building, which is newly painted, has a large red sign reading Arrow Press Inc. Other signs painted on the wall in red indicate that the establishment is open for a general printing business. The second floor of the building is utilized for editorial offices by Carlos Rafael Rodriguez, Vice Secretary of Correspondence of the National Executive Committee of the PSP, and his staff in handling propaganda activities. 25X1X6 25X1X6

The Arrow Press, a Communist-operated printing establishment, was located at Calle Luyano #13, Habana, Cuba, until early in November 1948 when it moved to Calle Mercaderes #162.

Editorial Paginas, book-distributing enterprise of the PSP formerly located at the address previously occupied by the Arrow Press, Lyano #13, is now located at Calle Mercaderes #162. The PSP intellectual magazine, Fundamentos, is published by Editorial Paginas, which is under the control of Carlos Rafael Rodriguez.

Ediciones Sociales, publishing agency for educational activities of the PSP and propaganda originating with the Cominform in Bucharest, Rumania, is under the direction of Carlos Rafael Rodriguez. Material published by this concern is distributed throughout Latin America.

- 2. Following the closing of Editorial Paginas on O'Reilly Street in November 1948*, a new bookshop known as Libreria Popular was opened at PSP headquarters, Carlos Tercero #609, Habana, Cuba.

- 3. Pasiencier y Rua, Impresores, located at Acosta 367, Habana, Cuba, prints a great deal of Communist propaganda. The head of this establishment is Ramira de la Rua. The employees are Cuban Communists. 25X1X6
