1. An order issued by NOF calls on its organized staff members to take proper steps, in absolute secrecy, to organize the Slav-speaking population by telling it that in the future a plebiscite will be held in Macedonia in order for the population to decide if it wishes to remain under Greek sovereignty or become an autonomous Macedonia, pointing out to them that their advantage and their imperative duty require them to organize so that they will vote in favor of Macedonian autonomy when the plebiscite is held.
2. The same persons are making efforts to persuade the parents of students in higher institutions to convince their children to give up their studies and to return to their villages so they may be sent to the universities of Moscow upon arrangements of the Rebel Government, promising them that their children's tuition and subsistence would be paid by the Soviet Government, and that a lump sum would be paid to the parent as well as a monthly subsidy.
