1. The Neurological Clinic of Cluj has been converted into a Communist training center for Greek children. Doctor Cuptea, Secretary General of the Rumanian Ministry of Health, has undertaken temporarily the direction of the center.
2. Wounded Greek guerrillas are being treated in hospitals in Rumania, especially in Bucharest, Craiova and Brasov. Their treatment is supervised by Soviet and Greek physicians.
3. Funds are being raised all over Rumania on behalf of the Greek guerrillas. These funds serve to camouflage the great amount of economic aid which is being given to the guerrillas by the Rumanian Government. This aid consists of all sorts of war materiel and medical supplies.
4. It was announced that 6,500 to 7,000 so-called Rumanian volunteers have been enlisted recently. Some of them are being trained at the Alpini training center at Predeal; others are in the military school at Râmnicul-Vâlcea, and still others in the infantry training center at Craiova.
5. The daily production of the Rumanian oil refineries runs up to 9,400 to 9,700 tons. This is a much lower production than before the war.
6. Russian laborers from Bessarabia have recently been employed by the most important factories of Rumania. These laborers serve as supervisory groups for the prevention of sabotage, which has occurred in the oil-producing areas of Rumania.
7. A large number of Soviet troops, belonging to various types of units, arrived at Constanța by sea between 15 April and 1 May 1949. Entire districts of Constanța, especially those around the port, were requisitioned for the accommodation of these troops. Private houses outside these districts have also been requisitioned by the Soviets for the same purpose. A part of this army, reinforced with batteries and anti-aircraft guns, went to Bulgaria. Such batteries and anti-aircraft guns have been placed also in Constanța along the Black Sea.
8. Rumanian authorities have organized stores of arms and ammunition in all the large factories. These weapons are destined for special labor units in the event of war. These labor units have been trained for fighting against air borne troops.

9. Spare parts for guns of all sizes and armor for small tanks are manufactured at the Resita works. Launchers for 85 to 120 mm. mines are being manufactured in the industrial center of Cugir-Copsa Mică in Transylvania.
10. Airplane motors and artillery aiming devices are being manufactured at Brasov. Mines and ammunition are being manufactured in the city of Orăstie. Parts for guns of all sizes are being manufactured in Sibiu.
11. A new special training center for officers and non-commissioned officers was opened in Bucharest on 7 November 1948. Marxist, Leninist and Stalinist theory is taught in this school to approximately 1,000 officers and non-commissioned officers at one time. This is a one-year course. General Petru Borila (may be a pseudonym), a Soviet, is the commanding officer of this center.
