A military airfield two kilometers west of Nis, Ser. , bet en the Beograd-Nis railroad line, Nisava River, and Medosevac covering an area four kilometers square is now being enlarged. The airfield landing strip is laid out on an azimuth of about 135 degrees. It is unpaved and runs a distance of one kilometer. There are no special landing field lights and regular automobile headlights are used. The field has two entrances one on the north side of the Crveni Krst railroad station and the other on the south side of Medosevac. The 421st "Jurisni -Sturmovacki" Air Regiment of the 2nd Air Division, headquarters at Skoplje, is stationed at this field, where it maintains 33 Soviet-manufactured Stormoviks. Source alleges the 421st Air Regiment should be assigned 70 aircraft in order to operate effectively. Two Fieseler Storch aircraft, also based at this field, are used as mail transports.
