1. An MVD school was located about 2.5 miles south of the ODESSA main RR station, on a southern exit road. It bordered on a reform school. The school comprised several administration and school buildings, of which a five-wing star-shaped building was especially noticeable.
2. NCOs and MVD troops were trained here. Each course of instruction lasted half a year. MVD officers of the ODESSA post also received advanced training there. There were about 150 students.
3. The ODESSA MVD school was attached to the MVD regiment stationed in ODESSA and was repeatedly inspected by the ODESSA MVD Chief, a general.
4. The HQ of the ODESSA MVD troops was located on Red Square.
