1. The Chou San Tso Tan Hui is a society formed by HUANG Shao-hsiung to collect the progressive elements of the Kuomintang and to unite the three split-off parties* of the Kuomintang already established in Peiping to form one party friendly to the Communists. This new party will join the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) in the coalition government, since the CCP permits friendly parties but not opposition ones.
 2. The CCP represents the peasants and workers while the new party will represent the productive class of native capitalists. Thus, this party will fill a need in joining with the CCP. Because Chinese capitalism is not far advanced the new party can properly represent it, just as the Conservative Party in England was important when industry was developing in that country.
 3. CCP leaders favor the establishment of the Chou San Tso Tan Hui, because they want to influence important members of the Kuomintang Party to prevent their being used by enemies of the CCP and by the U.S.A.
 4. The Chou San Tso Tan Hui is in touch with Communists in Hong Kong.
 5. HUANG believes that there will not be industrial development in China until the CCP combines with the USSR to crush the capitalistic nations which are enslaving China. There is no reason, however, why there cannot be trade relations between China and capitalistic countries meanwhile.
 6. The CCP is deliberately attacking the U.S.A. and England in order to break down their attitude of treating China as a colony and to ensure full national autonomy. This will not necessarily be continued.

Comment. The Kuomintang Revolutionary Committee and the Democratic League are probably two of them.
