RETAIN OR DESTROY

1. On 20 December 1949 Nationalist General PAI Chung-hsi was on Hainan; however, he was still in contact with all of his units on the China mainland.
2. PAI has completed negotiations with Bao Dai and has ordered his 1 and 10 Army Groups to enter Indochina to fight against the forces of Ho Chi Minh.
3. A letter from PAI, dated 14 December, indicated that he intended to send his forces to Indochina and they would "volunteer to continue the resistance at the request of nationalists of Indochina."
4. PAI has not gone to Hanoi but has sent representatives there. He sincerely believes that his representatives have negotiated with Bao Dai and that Bao Dai has given them assurances of his cooperation.

[REDACTED] paragraph 3, evaluated [REDACTED] reported PAI in Hanoi on 18 December. It would appear that the information in paragraph 4 above is more nearly correct and it should be noted that it comes from a more reliable source. PAI may be crediting his representatives in Indochina with greater success than is possible. The assurances given to them by Bao Dai may have been mis-interpreted; on the other hand, Bao Dai may have indicated more cooperation than he cares to admit. The reader's attention is called to the Washington comment on the referenced report.
