1. The Rumanian General Staff has ordered a loyalty check of all reserve officers. These officers are requested to complete a questionnaire containing twenty-four questions and to undergo a thirty-minute interrogation by a political commissar.
2. During the interrogation, the reserve officers are questioned as to their sentiments at the time of the declaration of "the anti-Soviet war", their feelings when Bessarabia was again taken by the Rumanian troops in 1941, and their outlook on the "liberation of Rumania by Soviet troops".
