1. On the afternoon of 5 March 1950, a secret meeting of ten councilors of the Partai Komunis Indonesia Merah (Red PKI) was held at Gang Tengah 31, Djakarta. A guard named Musbar was posted in front of the house. The meeting was presided over by Suhardjo, assisted by Supito*, as vice-chairman of the meeting. Supito's home address is Gang Tengah 15.
2. The agenda of the meeting included the following items:
 - a. Return of Darsono.
 - b. Inciting general strikes and lockouts to disrupt the mainstay of Indonesian economy.
 - c. Dissemination of propaganda designed to arouse discontent, an example of which would be the demanding of excessive increases in wages on threat of a general strike.
 - d. Spreading the idea among the laborers that the government of the Republik Indonesia Serikat is still half Dutch, i.e. semi-colonial, oppressing the laborers in the same manner as they were oppressed before the transfer of sovereignty.
 - e. Other matters arising from the discussions.
3. Those attending the meeting besides Suhardjo and Supito included:

Sumarsono	A Communist	c/o Dr. Martono Griseeweg 46
Iskandar	A Communist	c/o Dr. Martono Griseeweg 46
Mohammed Halim		Gang Tengah 14
