1. Following the explosion at the Grozavesti power plant on 28 April, a group of twelve engineers was appointed to make an investigation. Although several of this group reported that the explosion was an accident resulting from improper safety measures, the State Security has placed the hospital containing the injured under guard and is conducting an investigation into the possibilities of sabotage.
2. On 29 April a small textile plant in the Grivita section of Bucharest was destroyed by fire. During the following day an unspecified number of municipal workers, including garbage collectors and street car employees went out on a three-hour strike.
