1. One Rappaport, an individual who enjoyed the confidence of high officials of the Rumanian Workers Party, recently fled abroad with a large amount of Party funds in U. S. dollars. The funds taken by Rappaport had been set aside for propoganda work abroad.
2. Mihai Stroc, former secretary general of the National Bank, was arrested in early April on the charge that he had been involved in the disappearance of certain funds. It is believed that Stroc's arrest may have been connected with Rappaports flight.
