1. The Overseas Department of the Kuomintang (KMT) in Taiwan has written to the Singapore Chung Shing Jit Pao commending it for its KMT propaganda effort and asking whether or not KMT activities can be secretly resumed in Singapore.
2. The Overseas Department also sent to the Chung Shing Jit Pao an Overseas News Service pamphlet which outlined Premier CHEN Cheng's policy as follows: Military training for the protection of Taiwan and assault on the mainland; and the attainment of political unity and economic stability.
3. Taiwan propaganda circular No. 9, dated 25 March 1950, was also sent to the Chung Shing Jit Pao. It asked KMT branches and newspapers to publicize the vast improvements made in Nationalist China since CHIANG Kai-shek resumed the presidency and to expose the miseries of the people and the corruption prevalent in Communist China. The circular stated that since the signing of the Sino-Soviet Pact on 15 February 1950, large numbers of Russians have arrived in China to occupy supervisory government positions. Refugees from the Communist-occupied areas say that of the six thousand Russian technicians who have arrived in Shanghai, two thousand are air force ground personnel and anti-aircraft gunners; the remainder have been absorbed into the Shanghai police and municipal government.
4. The KMT has not been able to pay the cash award previously recommended by CHIANG Kai-shek for the Chung Shing Jit Pao. *

25X1A [REDACTED] reported the finding of anti-Communist propaganda in Singapore, distributed by the previously unknown Malayan Anti-Communist and Anti-Russian Column.

25X1X [REDACTED] It was later reported that US $5,000 had been granted to the Chung Shing Jit Pao. There has been a recent resurgence of activity in the Singapore KMT, but there is no connection apparent between this activity and the KMT Overseas Department communication.
