1. The Macao Special Commissioner's Office of the Chinese Communist Party on 6 July 1950 received Secret (MI Tzu. 秘字) Instructions Number 137, issued by the South China section of the Central South China Bureau.

2. The text of the instructions follows:

"Since Hong Kong and Macao are in an unusual position, all phases of the Communist Party working program must necessarily be reconsidered in order to coordinate the party platform and to cope with the international situation. Upon the order of the Communist Central Bureau, the working program for your office is outlined as follows:

- a. Cease enlistment of new party members. All existing organizations are to be considered external elements (外圍).
- b. Cease all public activities. Utilize democratic groups to carry on various propaganda and political campaigns.
- c. Party members who have exposed their identities should be reorganized into underground work groups.
- d. Intensify propaganda attacking countries of the British-American front.
- e. Intensify control over democratic groups. Enlarge democratic groups and increase the number of units.
- f. Draw in personnel from various circles to participate in the democratic camp and select loyal and honest comrades to infiltrate into various government and private agencies.
- g. Strengthen controls over workers' organizations in order to take full advantage of opportunities for inciting labor unrest that will bother the local government.
- h. Expedite transportation of essential materials to the mainland.
