- 1. Jose Uriel Garcia*, Peruvian benator from Cuzco, will reportedly have assistance from some right as well as left wing elements in his current fight to keep from being unseated. However, one group of right wing tenators in the new Peruvian Congress, led by Domingo Lonez de la Torre, are secking to unseat Uriel Garcia on the grounds that he is a Communist.
- 2. Uriel Garcia, the minority Senator from Cuzco and the only Senator in Congress who ran on a ticket (the original Lontagne slate) in open opposition to President Odria, is annoying the government with his attacks on the internal security law and on the Peruvian covernment's foreign policy on the Korean conflict. Uriel Garcia is well aware of the aims of his opponents and has alerted his many left wing friends. As a result, Laura Caller Therico, well-known woman Communist lawyer, is currently circulating a retition to obtain signatures backing a banquet in honor of the Senator.** The banquet would be endorsed by his rightist and leftist friends.
- 3. In spite of Jose Uriol Garcia's strong pro-Communist leanings, he is expected to receive the support of many non-Communist opponents of the Odria regime. Numerous well-known Communists and Communist sympathizers have already signed the petition. Garcia is head of the Limn Partisons of Peace committee and is a 25X1X known politician, intellectual and writer.

Comment. Although Jose Uriel Carcia is always referred to in Feru as Uriel Garcia because Carcia is such a common name, his surname is Carcia and 55x /Aicl.

Comment. It is common practice in Lima for a banquet in honor of some individual to be endorsed by dozens or hundred of signatures, which are kisted in the press in the form of a pa d advertisement.
