1. The Min Sheng She puts out the daily Sheng Huo Pao and has in addition been putting out a fortnightly which has now become a weekly. A copy of each of the first two numbers of the weekly, 29 July and 5 August 1950, has been received by the CIA library and may be obtained on request. The language is Chinese.
2. The editor of this weekly is CHENG Chu Yun (THE Tjoe Joeng). The second issue contains articles and editorials attacking and ridiculing the Americans, the English, and the Dutch. The Min Sheng She is considered a center of Chinese Communist Party activities in Djakarta.
3. Impartial Chinese circles express the opinion that the new Chinese Communist Ambassador in Djakarta, instead of protesting against the treatment of Chinese by the Indonesian Government 1945-1949 as was done by the Kuomintang officials in Indonesia, will stir up trouble and disorder.
