DATE OF INFO Prior to 26 October 1950

1. Investigation in Argentina has failed to develop evidence of any unusual movement toward the Bolivian border of Movimiento Nacional Revolucionario (MNR) exiles residing in Argentina, as they were reported [REDACTED] 25X1X to be planning to do.* [REDACTED] some MNR exiles, number 25X1X and identity unknown, have returned to Bolivia from Chile and Uruguay as a result of the decree of general amnesty recently passed by the Bolivian Congress.
2. Hernan Siles Zuazo, prominent MNR exile, was arrested by the Argentine police on 9 October 1950. [REDACTED] Carlos 25X1X Ibarguren, a leader of the anti-Peron, anti-United States and anti-Communist Argentine nationalists, is rumored in Bolivian circles in Buenos Aires to have been in contact recently with MNR exiles in the Argentine capital.
3. Lt. Colonel Ignacio Saucedo, Military and Air Attache of the Bolivian Embassy in Buenos Aires, is reported to be on very good terms with the brother of Eva Peron, Juan Duarte.
4. Incoming ordinary mail addressed to the Bolivian Embassy is still censored by Argentine authorities, and Bolivian newspapers are still not admitted to Argentina. This is done by order of the Argentine Minister of Interior.

25X1X [REDACTED] the Yacimientos Petroleros Fiscales Bolivianos (YPFB) plans to invest more money in the oil fields of Camiri, Guayruy and Sarandita, Bolivia, in the near future. The Argentine government, through the Comision Mixta de Conexion Vial-Argentino-Boliviana, wants to complete the construction of the railroad between Yacuiba, Santa Cruz de la Sierra, and Sucre, Bolivia, as soon as possible. The Comision is also expediting plans for the construction of the international highway, Rio Bermejo, to Tarija and Potosi. The new section to be built will be called "Paso por Tarija."
