REMARKS _____

50X1-HUM

1. On 7 November 1950, the Alte Grenadier Kaserne on Ernst Thaelmannstrasse, Neustrelitz (N 54/U 54), was occupied by about 500 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Thirty officers and 240 EM were seen marching into the installation that day. No motor traffic was noticed. (1)

2. The Neue Infanterie Kaserne on Penzliner Chaussee quartered about 3,000 troops who wore red-bordered black epaulets. On 7 November, 90 officers and about 650 EM were seen at a wreath-laying ceremony in the market square of Neustrelitz. When the troops departed, 60 officers and about 400 men left toward the Neue Infanterie Kaserne, and 30 officers and about 250 men toward the German motion picture theater. 50X1-HUM

3. About a thousand troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets were stationed in the restricted area on Glambeck Lake. Following a wreath-laying ceremony on 7 November, about 100 officers and 700 EM were observed to march into the restricted area. 50X1-HUM

4. About 400 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets were quartered in the restricted area of Schlossgarten. Two ammunition sheds were under construction beside the two ammunition sheds previously observed in Schlossgarten. Two sentries were seen for the first time at the ammunition dump. 50X1-HUM

5. About 200 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets were quartered in the restricted area of Tiergarten. Truck _____ was identified there. 50X1-HUM

6. About 300 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets were billeted in houses on Kirschenallee. Twenty officers and 200 EM were seen leaving the billets on 7 November to attend a wreath-laying ceremony. (3)

7. On 25 November 1950, the Infanterie Kaserne, or Douaumont Kaserne, still seemed to be only partly occupied. About 40 percent of the barracks windows were lighted that night. Trucks, whose numbers could not be determined, were seen through the doors of the first garage on Penzlinerstrasse, just north of the billeting area, on 17 November. (2)

50X1-HUM

8. Between 17 and 25 November, only little activity by military personnel was observed in the Adolf Hitler Kaserne on Strelitzerstrasse in the daytime. Not more than 40 percent of the barracks windows were lighted in the evenings. No motor traffic was noted. About 30 officers with black service color were observed at the railroad station at about 9 p.m. on 21 November. (4)

Comments.
