and the second of the	Approved For Release 2003/08/15 :	CIA-RDP82-00457	R007000410006-7
	CLASSIFICATION CONFIDENT	IVI		25X1
	CENTRAL INTELLIGEN		REPORT NO.	25X1
	INFORMATION	REPORT	CD NO.	J
COUNTRY	China		DATE DISTR. 19 Feb.	1951
SUBJECT	Chinese Communist Hillitary and Poli Information, Kwangtung	tical	NO. OF PAGES 3
25X1PLACE ACQUIRED	NO.		NO. OF ENCLS.
DATE OF INFO.		Land Alexander	SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.	25X1
25X 1 25 1 25 1 25 1 25 1 25 1 25 1 25 1	SCHOOLS WAS COLLECTED AS THE VIEW WAS THE RESTORAGE ASSETS OF THE THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY	THIS IS UNEVA	NLUATED INFORMATION
				ř
	Order of Battle and Hilitary Information	ntion
1.	On 5 February about 10,000 troops of Kwangtung-Kwangsi Column were in the January there were 15,000 troops the unknown destination via the Wanshan	Paoan (113-56, erc, some_of who	22-32) area 1 In late
2.	On 6 February, the 21, 29, and 31 Ar of Pacan, Tungkuan (113-46, 23-02), Swatow. Their strength including el 120,000 men. About 20,000 troops of Chekiang via Hunan (sic) and are now area.	Nuiyang (114-26 ements of the 4 of the 29 Army a	, 23-05), Bias Bay, and Field Army, was about
, 3 。	On 3 February about 30 light tanks we Swatew. They were off to the side of trees and grass mats.	erc on the high f the highway a	way between Huiyang and nd were camouflaged with
Ц.	On 5 February an armored car company Shaho, the northeastern suburb of Ca 22-4:7) and Aot ouchiang (114-32, 22-4:7)	nton, was trans 43). Docum Ho Cha Dec	ferred to Tanshui (1114-28, ent No ange In Glass. classified	-
		Auth.:	Changed To: TS S G KM 75-2 1 2 JUL 1978	25X1
STATE	CLASSIFICATION CONTINUINAL X NAVY X NSRB C STRIBU		жаруканты, g: Соруунатар //
ARMY	X AIR X FBI CINCITE OF ITAL	AF # CQLILAVED #	CUICPACITITE (C)	25X1

Early in February TSENS Sheng, commander of the Nwangtung-Nwangesi Column, was planning soon to dispatch about 100 members of his "Daredevil Assassins" to Paone an route to a "nearby foreign port." The men were trained at Samhsiang ( 184") and Chungshan (113-36, 22-22). The headquarters of the column was at Shihch'i (113-22, 22-30), Chungshan Hsien. The removal of the arsemal from Shihching (113-15, 23-13) to Chihchiang (109-37, 27-27) was to be completed by the end of Harch. Air Information Ch 2 February 30 Soviet engineers and advisors arrived at Santsao Island (113-, 22-) to enlarge the facilities of the airfield. On about 31 January 50 crates of planes and spare parts arrived at the island. On 6 February seven jet planes flew over Canton at about 2,000 feet in single echelon formation. Purchase of Landing Craft Early in February the Chinese Communists ordered a large number of landing craft from ship-building companies in the Shen P ( ) and Niu Ch'in Wen (  ) area of Kewloon. Late in January they ordered ho landing craft of about 100 tons each from the Ching Chi (*) shipyard in Kowloon. Political Information In early January the South China Sub-Bureau ordered all its workers in Hong Kong and Hacao to return to Canton for a short period of political training to be completed by the end of February. The workers were then to return to Hong Kong and Hacao. Early in February the Kwangtung Public Security Bureau docided to hold an emergency meeting in Canton on 7 February, and advised the Häik'on (110-20, 20-03) Public Security Office to send reports to the meeting. Early in February political workers in speeches to the villages of the Pacan area stated that Hong Kong would be "liberated" in three months. Posters calling for the return of the Rem Territories expeared Late in January in all railroad stations from Shihlung (113-51, 23-07) southward.		Confidential./	2
Early in February TSERS Sheng, commander of the Ewangtung-Ewangsi Column, was planning soon to dispatch about 100 members of his "Deredevil Assassins" to Pacen en route to a "nearby foreign port." The men were trained at Samhsiang ( 184") and Chungshan (113-36, 22-22). The headquarters of the column was at Shihch'i (113-22, 22-30), Chungshan Hsien. The removal of the arsenal from Shihching (113-15, 23-13) to Chihchiang (109-37, 27-27) was to be completed by the end of Elarch. Air Information On 2 February 30 Soviet engineers and advisors arrived at Santsao Island (113-, 22-) to enlarge the facilities of the sirfield. On about 31 January 50 crates of planes and spare parts arrived at the island. On 6 February seven jet planes flew over Canton at about 2,000 feet in single enhelon formation. Purchase of Landing Craft Early in February the Chinese Communists ordered a large number of landing craft from ship-building companies in the Shen F'u (  ) and Miu Ch'ih Wan (  )          		CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY	` ٦
was planning soon to dispatch about 100 members of his "Daredevil Assassins" to Pacan en route to a "mearby foreign port." The men were twained at Sanhsiang (2 164) and Chungshan (113-36, 22-22). The headquarters of the column was at Shinch'i (113-22, 22-30), Chungshan Hsien. The removal of the arsenal from Shinching (113-15, 23-13) to Chinchiang (109-37, 27-27) was to be completed by the end of Harch. Air Information On 2 February 30 Soviet engineers and advisors arrived at Santsac Island (113-, 22-) to enlarge the facilities of the airfield. On about 31 January 50 crates of planes and spare parts arrived at the island. On 6 February seven jet planes flew over Canton at about 2,000 feet in single enhelm formation. Purchase of Landing Craft Early in February the Chinese Communists ordered a large number of landing craft from ship-building companies in the Shen Pin (3 3) and Niu Ch'th Wan (4 30) area of Kowloon. Late in January they ordered 10 landing craft of should loo tone each from the Ching Chi (3 30) shippard in Kowloon. Political Information In early January the South China Sub-Bureau ordered all its workers in Hong Kong and Hacao to return to Canton for a short period of political training to be completed by the end of February. The workers were then to return to Hong Kong and Hacao. Early in February the Kwangtung Public Security Bureau decided to hold an emergency meeting in Canton on 7 February, and advised the Haik'ou (110-20, 20-03) Public Security Office to send reports to the meeting. Early in February political workers in speeches to the villages of the Pacan area stated that Hong Kong would be "liberated" in three months. Posters calling for the return of the Rew Territories appeared Late in January in all railroad stations from Shihlung (113-51, 23-07) southward.		= 2 =
The removal of the arsenal from Shihching (113-15, 23-13) to Chihchiang (109-37, 27-27) was to be completed by the end of Harch. Air Information Ch 2 February 30 Soviet engineers and advisors arrived at Santsao Island (113-, 22-) to enlarge the facilities of the airfield. On about 31 January 50 crates of planes and spare parts arrived at the island. Ch 6 February seven jet planes flew over Canton at about 2,000 feet in single echelon formation. Purchase of Landing Craft Early in February the Chinese Communists ordered a large number of landing craft from ship-building companies in the Shen F'u (		was planning soon to dispatch about 100 members of his "Daredevil Assassins" to Pacan en route to a "nearby foreign port." The men were trained at Sanhsiang (3 3 4) and Chungshan (113-36, 22-22). The headquarters of the Air Information On 2 February 30 Soviet engineers and advisors arrived at Santsao Island (113-, 22-) to enlarge the facilities of the airfield. On about 31 January 50 crates of planes and spare parts arrived at the island. On 6 February seven jet planes flew over Canton at about 2,000 feet in single echelon formation. Purchase of Landing Craft Early in February the Chinese Communists ordered a large number of landing craft from ship-building companies in the Shen F'u (2 10) and Niu Ch'ih Wan (4 10 10) area of Kowloon. Late in January they ordered he landing craft of about 100 tons each from the Ching Chi (2 10) shipyard in Kowloon. Political Information In early January the South China Sub-Bureau ordered all its workers in Hong Kong and Eacae to return to Canton for a short period of political training to be completed by the end of February. The workers were then to return to Hong Kong and Hacae. Early in February the Ewangtung Public Security Bureau decided to held an emergency meeting in Canton on 7 February, and advised the Haïk'ou (110-20, 20-03) Public Security Office to send reports to the meeting. Early in February political workers in speeches to the villages of the Pacan area stated that Hong Kong would be "liberated" in three months. Posters calling for the return of the How Territories appeared Late in January in all railroad stations from Shihlung (113-51, 23-07) southward.			2
On 2 February 30 Soviet engineers and advisors arrived at Santsao Island (113-, 22-) to enlarge the facilities of the airfield. On about 31 January 50 crates of planes and spare parts arrived at the island. On 6 February seven jet planes flew over Canton at about 2,000 feet in single echelon formation. Purchase of Landing Craft Early in February the Chinese Communists ordered a large number of landing craft from ship-building companies in the Shen P'u (3 10) and Niu Ch'ih Wan (4 10 10) area of Kowloon. Late in January they ordered 10 landing craft of shout 100 tons each from the Ching Chi (4 10) shippard in Kowloon. Political Information In early January the South China Sub-Bureau ordered all its workers in Hong Kong and Macao to return to Canton for a short period of political training to be completed by the end of February. The workers were then to return to Hong Kong and Macao. Early in February the Ewangtung Public Security Bureau decided to hold an emergency meeting in Canton on 7 February, and advised the Haik'ou (110-20, 20-03) Public Security Office to send reports to the meeting. Early in February political workers in speeches to the villages of the Pacan area stated that Hong Kong would be "liborated" in three months. Posters calling for the return of the New Territories speared Late in January in all railroad stations from Shihlung (113-51, 23-07) southward.		The removal of the arsenal from Shihching (113-15, 23-13) to Chihchiang (109-37, 27-27) was to be completed by the end of March.
(113-, 22-) to enlarge the facilities of the airfield. On about 31 January 50 crates of planes and spare parts arrived at the island. On 6 February seven jet planes flew over Canton at about 2,000 feet in single echelon formation. Purchase of Landing Craft Early in February the Chinese Communists ordered a large number of landing craft from ship-building companies in the Shen P'u (12 14) and Niu Ch'ih Wan (14 14) area of Kowloon. Late in January they ordered ho landing craft of about 100 tons each from the Ching Chi (14 14) shippard in Kowloon. Political Information In early January the South China Sub-Bureau ordered all its workers in Hong Kong and Escao to return to Canton for a short period of political training to be completed by the end of February. The workers were then to return to Hong Kong and Hacao. Early in February the Ewangtung Public Security Bureau decided to hold an omergency meeting in Canton on 7 February, and advised the Halk'ou (110-20, 20-03) Public Security Office to send reports to the meeting. Early in February political workers in speeches to the villages of the Pacan area stated that Hong Kong would be "liberated" in three months. Posters calling for the return of the New Territories speared Late in January in all railroad stations from Shihlung (113-51, 23-07) southward.		Air Information
Early in February the Chinese Communists ordered a large number of landing eraft from ship-building companies in the Shen P'v (1) (1) and Niu Ch'ih Wan (4) (1) area of Kowloon. Late in January they ordered ho landing craft of about 100 tons each from the Ching Chi (4) shipyard in Kowloon. Political Information In early January the South China Sub-Bureau ordered all its workers in Hong Kong and Macao to return to Canton for a short period of political training to be completed by the end of February. The workers were then to return to Hong Kong and Macao. Early in February the Kwangtung Public Security Bureau decided to hold an emergency meeting in Canton on 7 February, and advised the Haik'ou (110-20, 20-03) Public Security Office to send reports to the meeting. Early in February political workers in speeches to the villages of the Pacan area stated that Hong Kong would be "liberated" in three months. Posters calling for the return of the New Territories appeared late in January in all railroad stations from Shihlung (113-51, 23-07) southward.		(113- , 22-) to enlarge the facilities of the airfield. On about 31 January
Early in February the Chinese Communists ordered a large number of landing craft from ship-building companies in the Shen P'u (1)) and Niu Ch'ih Wan (4 20 20) area of Kowloon. Late in January they ordered 10 landing craft of about 100 tons each from the Ching Chi (4 10) shippard in Kowloon. Political Information In early January the South China Sub-Bureau ordered all its workers in Hong Kong and Hacao to return to Canton for a short period of political training to be completed by the end of February. The workers were then to return to Hong Kong and Hacao. Early in February the Kwangtung Public Security Bureau decided to hold an emergency meeting in Canton on 7 February, and advised the Hajk'ou (110-20, 20-03) Public Security Office to send reports to the meeting. Early in February political workers in speeches to the villages of the Pacan area stated that Hong Kong would be "liborated" in three months. Posters calling for the return of the New Territories appeared late in January in all railroad stations from Shihlung (113-51, 23-07) southward.
Early in February the Kwangtung Public Security Bureau decided to hold an emergency meeting in Canton on ? February, and advised the Hajk'ou (110-20, 20-03) Public Security Office to send reports to the meeting. Early in February political workers in speeches to the willages of the Pacan area stated that Hong Kong would be "liberated" in three months. Posters calling for the return of the New Territories appeared late in January in all railroad stations from Shihlung (113-51, 23-07) southward.		Purchase of Landing Craft	2
In early January the South China Sub-Bureau ordered all its workers in Hong Kong and Hacao to return to Canton for a short period of political training to be completed by the end of February. The workers were then to return to Hong Kong and Hacao. Early in February the Ewangtung Public Security Bureau decided to hold an emergency meeting in Canton on 7 February, and advised the Halk'ou (110-20, 20-03) Public Security Office to send reports to the meeting. Early in February political workers in speeches to the villages of the Pacan area stated that Hong Kong would be "liberated" in three months. Posters calling for the return of the New Territories appeared late in January in all railroad stations from Shihlung (113-51, 23-07) southward.		craft from ship-building companies in the Shen P'v (環境) and Niu Ch'ih Wan (骨 泡 液) area of Kowloon。 Late in January they ordered hO landing
Kong and Macao to return to Canton for a short period of political training to be completed by the end of February. The workers were them to return to Hong Kong and Macao. Early in February the Kwangtung Public Security Bureau decided to hold an emergency meeting in Canton on 7 February, and advised the Halk'ou (110-20, 20-03) Public Security Office to send reports to the meeting. Early in February political workers in speeches to the villages of the Pacan area stated that Hong Kong would be "liberated" in three months. Posters calling for the return of the New Territories appeared late in January in all railroad stations from Shihlung (113-51, 23-07) southward.		Political Information	2
Early in February the Kwangtung Public Security Bureau decided to hold an emergency meeting in Canton on 7 February, and advised the Haik'ou (110-20, 20-03) Public Security Office to send reports to the meeting. Early in February political workers in speeches to the villages of the Pacan area stated that Hong Kong would be "liberated" in three months. Posters calling for the return of the New Territories appeared late in January in all railroad stations from Shihlung (113-51, 23-07) southward.		Kong and Macao to return to Canton for a short period of political training to be completed by the end of February. The workers were then to return cmergency meeting in Canton on 7 February, and advised the Halk'ou (110-20, 20-03) Public Security Office to send reports to the meeting. Early in February political workers in speeches to the villages of the Pacan area stated that Hong Kong would be "liberated" in three months. Posters calling for the return of the New Territories appeared late in January in all railroad stations from Shihlung (113-51, 23-07) southward.			2
area stated that Hong Kong would be "liberated" in three months. Posters calling for the return of the New Territories appeared late in January in all railroad stations from Shihlung (113-51, 23-07) southward.		omergency meeting in Canton on 7 February, and advised the Halk'ou (110.20, area stated that Hong Kong would be "liberated" in three months. Posters calling for the return of the New Territories appeared late in January in all
			2
	-		