

INFORMATION REPORT

CD NO.

COUNTRY USSR/Austria/Hungary
SUBJECT Soviet Order of Battle

DATE DIST: 17 AUG 51 25X1A

NO. OF PAGES 3

PLACE ACQUIRED 25X1A

NO. OF ENCLS. LISTED BELOW 25X1A

DATE OF INFO.

SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

RETURN TO CIA LIBRARY

25X1X

- 2. Source supplied the following information on military units and installations in the vicinity of Kuibyshev (53-12N, 50-09E) as of December 1943:
 - a. The Kuibyshev Voenkomat (Military Draft Board) was located on Ovrug Impeishchikov Street.
 - b. The 162nd Artillery Regiment, located in Syzran (57-00N, 57-47E), belonged to an unidentified infantry division whose headquarters was in Kuibyshev. The division headquarters was located in the former barracks of the 7th Communications Regiment on Maslennikov Prospekt, at the end of streetcar lines numbers 2 and 7. The commander of the division was Maj. Gen. (fnu) Chernukha.
 - c. The 5th Stalinski Howitzer Battalion (Division), located in Syzran, belonged to the 162nd Artillery Regiment. It was equipped with 122 mm howitzers. The commander of the Battalion was Capt. (fnu) Yeroemin. The Battalion was actually of company strength, since it had only three officers and 120 enlisted men. The other two officers were Lt. (fnu) Zetsevizh, of Yugoslav nationality, and an unidentified political officer (zampolit).
 - d. The 6th Battalion was also located in Syzran and also belonged to the 162nd Artillery Regiment. The 6th was equipped with 100 mm guns.
 - e. Lt. Col. (fnu) Boyevochkin commanded both the 5th Howitzer Battalion and the 6th Battalion, but his exact title and status are uncertain.
 - f. The military unit number (voiskovaya chast) of the 5th Howitzer Battalion was 22267.
 - g. In addition to the 5th and 6th Battalions, the 162nd Artillery Regiment also had an anti-aircraft artillery battalion.
 - h. There was an infantry officer's training school located in the same garrison (voennyi porodok) in Syzran.
 - i. There was an independent training battalion in Kuibyshev which had about 120 enlisted men. The voiskovaya chast was 75631. The commander of the battalion was Maj. (fnu) Dolgeshko or Dovzhesko, and the political officer was Lt. Col. (fnu) Strelkov. The 2nd Company consisted of recruits who were slated for clerical jobs, and was commanded by Maj. (fnu) Moiseyenko. There were four platoons in the 2nd Company, of which the 2nd Platoon was commanded by Lt. Vladimir (fnu) Ibragimov, and the 3rd Platoon by Sgt. (fnu) Zomulo.

CLASSIFICATION SECRET SECURITY INFORMATION

| | | | |
|-------|--|--|--------------|
| STATE | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> NAVY | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> NSRB | DISTRIBUTION |
| ARMY | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> AIR | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> FBI | |

When this report is used to compare with the letter of transmittal from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2003

Document No. 3
 No Change in Class.
 Declassified
 Class. Changed To: TS S C
 Auth: HR 702-78
 Date: 20-7-78 By: BO

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

2. Source identified the following OCS institutions within the Soviet Union.
- a. Uchilishche Dalnoi Bombardirovochnoi Aviatsii (School of Long-range Bombardment Aviation) located in Riga, Latvian SSR.
 - b. Finance OCS, located in Dmitrov, about 200 km from Moscow (not located).
 - c. SVUS - Leningradskoye Voennoye Uchilishche Svyazi (Leningrad Military Signal School) located in Leningrad.
 - d. Smersh school, located in Buzuluk (52-23N, 36-20E), Chkalov Oblast.
 - e. Motor transport OCS, located in Kolenkovish (not located), Baranovich Oblast, Belorussian SSR.
 - f. Artillery OCS, for heavy artillery, located in Kiev, Ukrainian SSR.
 - g. Pervoye GUKTU - Pervoye Ovardeiskoye Ulyanovskoye Krasnoznamennoye Tankovoye Uchilishche (First Guards Ulyanov Red Banner Tank School), located in Ulyanovsk (54-20N, 48-24E).
 - h. Infantry OCS, located in Khabarovsk (48-30N, 135-06E).
 - i. Aviation OCS, located in Chkalov (40-56N, 44-39E).
 - j. Infantry OCS located in Tambov (52-43N, 41-27E).
 - k. Infantry OCS located in Syzran; see Paragraph 1 h.
 - l. Infantry OCS located in Saratov (51-34N, 46-02E).
 - m. Naval aviation OCS located in Nikolayev (46-58N, 32-00E).
 - n. Naval aviation OCS located in Yeisk (46-40N, 38-17E).
 - o. Artillery preparatory school, giving a one-year course prior to entry into artillery OCS, located in Yerevan (40-11N, 44-30E).
 - p. WD Border Troops OCS, located in Ashkhabad (37-57N, 58-23E).

25X1C

4. Source gives the following details on the organization and personnel of the 59th Separate Communications Regiment (Paragraph 3a):
- a. The Regiment consisted of three battalions, and was commanded by Lt. Col. (fnu) Feditkin.
 - b. The Chief of Staff was Lt. Col. (fnu) Andreyev.
 - c. The Political Officer (zampolit) was Lt. Col. (fnu) Letvinenko.
 - d. The Senior Adjutant was Maj. (fnu) Tankovich.
 - e. The Counter-intelligence Officer (Ofitser kontrrazvedki) was Capt. (fnu) Youbinysev (probably Yudintsev).
 - f. The commander of the Telegraph and Telephone Battalion was Maj. (fnu) Stepanenko.
 - g. The Executive Officer of the T&T Battalion was Maj. (fnu) Shumenko.

SECRET

- 2 -

~~SECRET~~

25X1A

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

- h. The Commanding Officer of the first company of the T&T Battalion was Capt. (fnu) Stepovoi.
- i. The Political Officer of the first company of the T&T Battalion was Lt. (fnu) Koryakov.
- j. One of the platoon leaders of the first company of the T&T Battalion was Lt. (fnu) Golovko.
- k. The Commanding Officer of the second company of the T&T Battalion was Capt. (fnu) Tryapkin.
- l. The commander of the Radio Battalion of the 59th was Lt. Col. (fnu) Martinov.
- m. The other battalion of the 59th was the Auto-Transportation Battalion, commander unknown.

~~SECRET~~
-3-