The Canton Sino-Soviet Friendship Association informed all government and private organizations that prior to 1 July 1951 letters were to be written to Soviet friends and responsible persons of various Soviet organizations, describing present conditions in China and thanking them for bringing about the present situation. Special emphasis was to be on letters to Stalin, thanking him for his loving care of the Chinese people. All letters had to be censored by the chiefs of the organizations before being sent to the USSR by way of the Sino-Soviet Friendship Association.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
