XIII	CHANGE AND A STATE OF	Airfields near Stolp
1A	us f il lowners - men		77
EVALU	IATIO	NPLACE OBTAINED_	The state of the s
C DATE	OF C	ONTEN
		JNEDOATE PREPARED_28 June 199
REFER			The Contraction of the San Property of the Contract of the Con
		ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)
REMARKS
COMPA	\NO		$ - 3 - 4 - 4 - 4 - 4 - 4 - 4 - 4 - 4 - 4
dr saucadesc	THREE POLEME		g ² 4
	F. N. W. 4270, CAMPA
IX	W NOT YESKA A SECTI
OURC	DE
	1,	The airfield north of the Stolp-Reitz (P 55/N 09) road extent to 1,200 meters from east to west and about 1,500 meters from the landing field and the surroundings were level. Reitz Foodirectly east of the field. In the spring of 1,950 repair woo on three damaged hangars in the southwestern corner of the 1,950 the woods between the road to Neiderzin and Jeseritz we probably for an extension of the field. In the summer of 1910 biplanes were parked on the edge of the field. No aircraft	om north to south. Test is located on the south of the so
		to 1,200 meters from east to west and about 1,500 meters from the landing field and the surroundings were level. Reitz For directly east of the field. In the spring of 1,950 repair wor on three damaged hangars in the southwestern corner of the 1,250 the woods between the road to Neiderzin and Jeseritz we probably for an extension of the field. In the summer of 1,91 biplanes were parked on the edge of the field. No aircraft of been seen there since 1948. 	om north to south, rest is located ck was being done field. In 1949/ ore being cleared, 47, about 20 or soldiers have to 1,200 meters from east to west and about 1,500 meters from the landing field and the surroundings were level. Reitz For directly east of the field. In the spring of 1950 repair work on three damaged hangers in the southwestern corner of the 1950 the woods between the road to Neiderzin and Jeseritz we probably for an extension of the field. In the summer of 191 biplanes were parked on the edge of the field. No aircraft of been seen there since 1948. * A large airfield was located between Stolp-Birkow (P 55/M 98). There was intensive flying by biplanes and small more than three planes were aloft at the same time. A farshe felde was occupied by about 20 Polish soldiers who reve asset	om north to south orest is located of the was being done field. In 1949/ ore being cleared, 47, acoust 20 or soldiers have 2) and Ulrichsfelde monoplanes. Not ouse in Ulrichs-
X1A		to 1,200 meters from east to west and about 1,500 meters from the landing field and the surroundings were level. Reitz Fordirectly east of the field. In the spring of 1,950 repair work on three damaged hangars in the southwestern corner of the 1,250 the woods between the road to Meiderzin and Jeseritz we probably for an extension of the field. In the summer of 191 biplanes were parked on the edge of the field. No aircraft of been seen there since 1948. * A large airfield was located between Stolp-Birkow (P 55/M 98). There was intensive flying by biplanes and small more than three planes were aloft at the same time. A farmly	om north to south orest is located of the was being done field. In 1949/ ore being cleared, 47, about 20 or soldiers have 2) and Ulrichsfelde the morplanes. Not be used to the field.
A		to 1,200 meters from east to west and about 1,500 meters from the landing field and the surroundings were level. Reitz Fordirectly east of the field. In the spring of 1950 repair word on three damaged hangars in the southwestern corner of the 1950 the woods between the road to Neiderzin and Jeseritz we probably for an extension of the field. In the summer of 191 biplanes were parked on the edge of the field. No aircraft observed there since 1948. * A large airfield was located between Stolp-Birkow (P 55/M 98). There was intensive flying by biplanes and small more than three planes were aloft at the same time. A farmhous felde was occupied by about 20 Polish soldiers who were assist was repeatedly observed that soldiers of the Stolp Polish marched to the field in groups of about 50 men. They were the braids in contrast to the other soldiers.  Comment. Agrees with previous information, except for expansion of the field which is reported for the first time.	om north to south orest is located of the south of the so
A	2.	to 1,200 meters from east to west and about 1,500 meters from the landing field and the surroundings were level. Reitz For directly east of the field. In the spring of 1950 repair wor on three damaged hangars in the southwestern corner of the 1950 the woods between the road to Neiderzin and Jeseritz we probably for an extension of the field. In the summer of 191 biplanes were parked on the edge of the field. No aircraft of been seen there since 1948. * A large airfield was located between Stolp-Birkow (P 55/M 98). There was intensive flying by biplanes and small more than three planes were aloft at the same time. A farming felde was occupied by about 20 Polish soldiers who were assist was repeatedly observed that soldiers of the Stolp Polish marched to the field in groups of about 50 men. They were the braids in contrast to the other soldiers.  Comment. Agrees with previous information, except for expansion of the field which is reported for the first time on the occupation in 194° agrees with a previous report. The summer of 1950.	om north to south, rest is located ck was being done field. In 1949/ ore being cleared, 47, about 20 or soldiers have 2) and Ulrichsfelde monoplanes. Not buse in Ulrichstand to the field, a officers school to silver sleave 2 a possible The information since 1948
A	2.	to 1,200 meters from east to west and about 1,500 meters from the landing field and the surroundings were level. Reitz For directly east of the field. In the spring of 1950 repair wor on three damaged hangars in the southwestern corner of the 1950 the woods between the road to Neiderzin and Jeseritz we probably for an extension of the field. In the summer of 191 biplanes were parked on the edge of the field. No aircraft of been seen there since 1948. * A large airfield was located between Stolp-Birkow (P 55/M 98). There was intensive flying by biplanes and small more than three planes were aloft at the same time. A farming felde was occupied by about 20 Polish soldiers who were assist was repeatedly observed that soldiers of the Stolp Polish marched to the field in groups of about 50 men. They were the braids in contrast to the other soldiers.  Comment. Agrees with previous information, except for expansion of the field which is reported for the first time on the occupation in 1947 agrees with a previous report. However, the informatica that the field has been unoccuried	om north to south rest is located of the south of the sou
A	2.	The landing field and the surroundings were level. Reitz For directly east of the field. In the spring of 1950 repair wor on three damaged hangars in the southwestern corner of the 1950 the woods between the road to Neiderzin and Jeseritz we probably for an extension of the field. In the summer of 191 biplanes were parked on the edge of the field. No aircraft of been seen there since 1948. * A large airfield was located between Stolp-Birkow (P 55/M 98). There was intensive flying by biplanes and small more than three planes were aloft at the same time. A farming felde was occupied by about 20 Polish soldiers who were assist was repeatedly observed that soldiers of the Stolp Polish marched to the field in groups of about 50 men. They were the braids in contrast to the other soldiers.  Comment. Agrees with previous information, except for expansion of the field which is reported for the first time on the occupation in 194° agrees with a previous report. In the occupation in 194° agrees with a previous report. The information that the field has been unoccupied contradicts another report covering the summer of 1950. Comment. The information refers to Stolp-West airfield believed to be abandoned. Utilization of the field by a piloconfirmation.	om north to south rest is located of the sound of the sou
A	2.	The landing field and the surroundings were level. Reitz For directly east of the field. In the spring of 1950 repair wor on three damaged hangars in the southwestern corner of the 1950 the woods between the road to Meiderzin and Jeseritz we probably for an extension of the field. In the summer of 191 biplanes were parked on the edge of the field. No aircraft of been seen there since 1948. * A large airfield was located between Stolp-Birkow (P 55/M 98). There was intensive flying by biplanes and small more than three planes were aloft at the same time. A farmine fielde was occupied by about 20 Polish soldiers who were assist was repeatedly observed that soldiers of the Stolp Polish marched to the field in groups of about 50 men. They were the braids in contrast to the other soldiers.  Comment. Agrees with previous information, except for expansion of the field which is reported for the first time on the occupation in 1947 agrees with a previous report. Towever, the information that the field has been uncocupied contradicts another report covering the summer of 1950. Document. The information refers to Stolp-West airfield believed to be abandoned. Utilization of the field by a pilo confirmation. Document No. Me Change in Class.	om north to south rest is located of the sound of the sou
X1A A A	2.	to 1,200 meters from east to west and about 1,500 meters from the landing field and the surroundings were level. Reitz Fordirectly east of the field. In the spring of 1,950 repair worn three damaged hangars in the southwestern corner of the 1,950 the woods between the road to Meiderzin and Jeseritz we probably for an extension of the field. In the summer of 191 biplanes were parked on the edge of the field. No aircraft of the seen seen there since 1948. * A large airfield was located between Stolp-Birkow (P 55/M 98). There was intensive flying by biplanes and small more than three planes were aloft at the same time. A farming field was occupied by about 20 Polish soldiers who were assist was repeatedly observed that soldiers of the Stolp Polish marched to the field in groups of about 50 men. They were to braids in contrast to the other soldiers.  Comment. Agrees with previous information, except for expansion of the field which is reported for the first time on the occupation in 1947 agrees with a previous report. However, the information that the field has been unoccupied contradicts another report covering the summer of 1950. Comment. The information refers to Stolp-West airfield believed to be abandoned. Utilization of the field by a piloconfirmation. Document No	om north to south rest is located of the sound of the sou
A	2.	The landing field and the surroundings were level. Reitz For directly east of the field. In the spring of 1950 repair wor on three damaged hangars in the southwestern corner of the 1950 the woods between the road to Meiderzin and Jeseritz we probably for an extension of the field. In the summer of 191 biplanes were parked on the edge of the field. No aircraft of been seen there since 1948. * A large airfield was located between Stolp-Birkow (P 55/M 98). There was intensive flying by biplanes and small more than three planes were aloft at the same time. A farmine fielde was occupied by about 20 Polish soldiers who were assist was repeatedly observed that soldiers of the Stolp Polish marched to the field in groups of about 50 men. They were the braids in contrast to the other soldiers.  Comment. Agrees with previous information, except for expansion of the field which is reported for the first time on the occupation in 1947 agrees with a previous report. Towever, the information that the field has been uncocupited contradicts another report covering the summer of 1950. Document. The information refers to Stolp-West airfield believed to be abandoned. Utilization of the field by a pilo confirmation. Document No. Me Change in Class. Document No. Me Change in Class.	om north to south orest is located of the sound of the so

LO

CLASSIFICATION CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROL/US OFFICIALS ONLY