25X1X  1. No troops had moved into the barracks installations at Wuensdorf (Ninto Camp Zossen by 23 June 1951. However, there were manners that the carrive any day, Small-scale repair work was performed in the Lutz which source believed would be charged to the account of the unit the neve into the installation.  2. On 26 June, the Cambrai Agerne was partly cocupied by troops, No the was noticed. Late guards wore red-bordered black epaulots, Vohicles were identified at the installation, Three units of about the second second to the guards wore red-bordered around the yard of the History cocks. It is already to the second the part of the History cocks, and a waitness stated that the Historical guards were red-bordered black epaulots, Vohicles berracks gate. I hoaded with bathroom fixtures, stocked and the part of the History cocks, allegedly including Juster which soldiers from other whither youts, allegedly including Juster borg, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. There work in vamp Zossen was largely coupleted, and the remaining work was finished during the coating days. The aircrementioned wateress we by a colonel on 26 June for work in Camp Zossen in duly. The colonel he was looking for six waitresses for the officers' wass in the camp units were due to arrive in Zossen and Wanssdorf during the coan units were due to arrive in Zossen and Wanssdorf during the coan units were due to arrive in Zossen and Wanssdorf during the coan units were due to arrive in Zossen and Wanssdorf during the coan units were due to arrive in Zossen and Wanssdorf during the coan units were due to arrive in Zossen and Wanssdorf during the coan units were due to arrive in Zossen and Wanssdorf during the coan units were due to arrive in Zossen and Wanssdorf during the coan units were due to arrive in Zossen and Wanssdorf during the coan units were due to arrive in Zossen and Wansdorf during the coan and waters and units were due to arrive in Zossen and Wansdorf during the coan units were due to arrive in Zossen an	manus consenses of a consense
PAGES 1. LECTLOSURES (No. & 1725)  REMARKS 25X1X  1. No troops had moved into the barracks installations at Muensdorf (No. 18 into Gamp Zossen by 23 June 1951. However, there were mulsors that the tearrive any day. Small-scale repair work was performed in the Luta which source believed would be charged to the account of the unit the move into the installation.  2. On 26 June, the Cambrai Accorne was partly occupied by troops. No the move into the installation, Three units of about soldiers cach were singing as they marched shound the yard of the March State guards were red-bordered black epaulots. Vehicles were singing as they marched shound the yard of the March State guards were parked in the barracks yard. Gate guards were red-bordered black opaulots. Observation was the state of the March State guards were parked in the barracks yard. Gate guards were red-bordered with bathrood firturers, stop hauled a load of boxes from the installation; barracks gate. 1 Leaded with bathrood firturers, stop hauled a load of boxes from the installation; only some German craftsmen were seen in Camp Zossen, Two Cand a waitness stated that the Mindenburg Maserne housed a driver to which soldiers from other military posts, allegedly including Juster berg, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. Ther that this training unit would be transferred to another post. The that this training unit would be transferred to another post. The work in Camp Zossen in July. The coloned he was looking for six waitresses for the officers' wass in the came by a coloned on 26 June for work in Camp Zossen in July. The coloned he was looking for six waitresses for the officers' wass in the came the was looking for six waitresses for the officers' was in the came the was looking for six waitresses for the officers' was in the came the was looking for six waitresses for the officers' was in the came the was looking for six waitresses for the officers' was in the came the was looking for six waitresses for the officers' was in the came 25X1X  1. No troops had moved into the barracks installations at Wuensdorf (N into Camp Zossen by 23 June 1951. However, there were ruled's that the arrive any day. Small-scale repair work was performed in the Lutz which source believed would be charged to the account of the unit the move into the installation.  2. On 26 June, the Cambrai Maserne was partly occupied by troops. No treatment of the installation.  2. On 26 June, the Cambrai Maserne was partly occupied by troops. No treatment of the installation. Three units of about soldiers cach were singing as they marched around the yard of the Maserne was partly occupied by troops. No treatment of the move into the installation. Three units of about 15 trucks were parked in the barracks yard. Gate guards were in July as the parked at load of boxes from the installation.  25X1B  Penzer Maserne was vacant but guarded by sentries who were red-borde epaulets. Only some German craftsmen were seen in Camp Zossen. Two Cand a waitness stated that the Mindenburg Maserne housed a driver which soldiers from other military posts, allegedly including Juster berg, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. Ther that this training unit would be transferred to another post, the rework in Camp Zossen was largely completed, and the remaining work was finished during the coming days. The aforementioned waitness was by a cologel on 26 June for work in Camp Zossen in July. The coloned he was looking for six waitnesses for the efficers' less in the came	175
25X1X  1. No troops had moved into the barracks installations at Wuensdorf (N into Camp Zossen by 23 June 1951. However, there were ruled's that the arrive any day. Small-scale repair work was performed in the Lutz which source believed would be charged to the account of the unit the move into the installation.  2. On 26 June, the Cambrai Maserne was partly occupied by troops. No tree was noticed. Sate guards were red-bordered black equalities. Vohicles sould were identified at the installation. Three units of about soldiers cach were singing as they marched around the yard of the Maser and the same of the move in the barracks yard. Sate guards were in leaded with bathroom fixtures, stoopers, the same was vacant but guarded by sentries who were red-borde epaulets. Only some German craftsmen were seen in Camp Zossen. Two Cand a waitness stated that the Mindenburg Maserne housed a driver to which soldiers from other military posts, allegedly including Juster berg, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. Ther that this training unit would be transferred to another post, the rework in Camp Zossen was largely coupleted, and the remaining work wa finished during the coming days. The aforementioned waitness was by a colonel on 26 June for work in Camp Zossen in July. The colonel he was looking for six waitnesses for the officers' ness in the came	influents 4- der zu der Streunsprechtungsbertu
25X1X  1. No troops had moved into the barracks installations at Wuensdorf (Ninto Camp Zossen by 23 June 1951. However, there were minors that the tearrive any day. Small-scale repair work was performed in the Intervenieth source believed would be charged to the account of the unit the move into the installation.  2. On 26 June, the Cambrai Maserne was partly occupied by troops. No transport was noticed. Sate guards were red-bordered black epaulots, Vohicles were identified at the installation. Three units of about solders each were singing as they marched around the yard of the Minor State guards were red-bordered with bathroom firstures, stop barracks gate. I haded with bathroom firstures, stop barracks gate. I haded a load of boxes from the inote paulots, Only some German craftsmen were seen in Camp Zossen. Two Camp Zossen was tasted that the Mindenburg Kaserne housed a driver to which soldiers from other military posts, allegedly including Juster berg, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. There work in Camp Zossen was largely completed, and the remaining work was finished during the covering days. The aforementioned waitress was by a cologel on 26 June for work in Camp Zossen in July. The colored he was looking for six waitresses for the officers' mess in the camp	set between development van voor 107
25X1X  1. No troops had moved into the barracks installations at Wuensdorf (Nikto Camp Zossen by 23 June 1951. However, there were amount that it carrive any day. Small-scale repair work was performed in the Interval which source believed would be charged to the account of the unit the move into the installation.  2. Oz 26 June, the Cambrai Asserne was partly occupied by troops. No tracks moticed. Sate guards were red-bordered black epaulots, Vohicles were identified at the installation. Three units of about soldiers each were singing as they marched around the yard of the Misself epaulots. It is a soldier to be accounted in the barracks yard, Cate guards were red-bordered black epaulots. It is the soldiers of the installation of the motion barracks gate. It is a loaded with bathroom firstures, stop barracks gate. It is a loaded with bathroom firstures, stop barracks gate. It is a load of boxes from the inotal paulots. Only some German craftsmen were seen in Camp Zossen. Two Camp Zossen was largely completed, and the remaining work was finished during the covaing days. The aforementioned waitress was by a cologel on 26 June for work in Camp Zossen in July. The colored he was looking for six waitresses for the officers' mess in the camp	Chapterior Aventualist (Chapterior Chapterior Chapterio
25X1X  1. No troops had moved into the barracks installations at Wuensdorf (Nikto Camp Zossen by 23 June 1951. However, there were amount that it carrive any day. Small-scale repair work was performed in the Interval which source believed would be charged to the account of the unit the move into the installation.  2. Oz 26 June, the Cambrai Asserne was partly occupied by troops. No tracks moticed. Sate guards were red-bordered black epaulots, Vohicles were identified at the installation. Three units of about soldiers each were singing as they marched around the yard of the Misself epaulots. It is a soldier to be accounted in the barracks yard, Cate guards were red-bordered black epaulots. It is the soldiers of the installation of the motion barracks gate. It is a loaded with bathroom firstures, stop barracks gate. It is a loaded with bathroom firstures, stop barracks gate. It is a load of boxes from the inotal paulots. Only some German craftsmen were seen in Camp Zossen. Two Camp Zossen was largely completed, and the remaining work was finished during the covaing days. The aforementioned waitress was by a cologel on 26 June for work in Camp Zossen in July. The colored he was looking for six waitresses for the officers' mess in the camp	employers on the state of the s
1. No troops had moved into the barracks installations at Whensdorf (N into Camp Zossen by 23 June 1951. However, there were value that the carrive any day. Small-scale repair work was performed in the Lutz which source believed would be charged to the account of the unit the move into the installation.  2. On 26 June, the Cambrai Asserne was partly occupied by troops. No treatment of the installation.  2. On 26 June, the Cambrai Asserne was partly occupied by troops. No treatment of the installation.  2. On 26 June, the Cambrai Asserne was partly occupied by troops. No treatment of the installation. Three units of about soldiers each were singing as they marched around the yard of the March States were parked in the barracks yard. Gate guards wore related by beautiful to the particle yard. Gate guards wore related a load of boxes from the installation, Three units of about 15 trucks were parked in the barracks yard. Gate guards wore related a load of boxes from the installation. Two Camp Zossen. Two Camp Zossen. Two Camp Zossen. Two Camp Zossen was largely completed, and the remaining work was finished during the coming days. The aforementioned waitress was by a colonel on 26 June for work in Camp Zossen in July. The colonel he was looking for six waitresses for the officers' mess in the camp	Classica en la referent turba (198 al Marianesta de Mathematica (1981) esta esta esta esta esta esta esta esta
1. No troops had moved into the barracks installations at Wuensdorf (Ninto Gamp Zossen by 23 June 1951. However, there were trucors that the carrive any day. Small-scale repair work was performed in the Interwhich source believed would be charged to the account of the unit the move into the installation.  2. On 26 June, the Cambrai Maserne was partly occupied by troops. No trucome into the installation.  2. On 26 June, the Cambrai Maserne was partly occupied by troops. No trucome into the installation. Three units of about soldiers each were singing as they marched around the yard of the Miles about 15 trucks were parked in the barracks yard. Cate guards were roles to epaulets.  25X1B About 15 trucks were parked in the barracks yard. Cate guards were roles to epaulets. Only some German craftsmen were seen in Camp Zossen. Two Cand and a waitness stated that the Hindenburg Maserne housed a driver truchich soldiers from other military posts, allegedly including Juster berg, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. There work in Camp Zossen was largely completed, and the remaining work was finished during the coming days. The aforementioned waitness was by a cologel on 26 June for work in Camp Zossen in July. The colonel he was looking for six waitnesses for the officers' mess in the camp	a therefore under making grafular in the visit
1. No troops had moved into the barracks installations at Wuensdorf (Ninto Camp Zossen by 23 June 1951. However, there were runars that the totarrive any day. Small-scale repair work was performed in the Lutz which source believed would be charged to the account of the unit the move into the installation.  2. On 26 June, the Cambrai Raserne was partly occupied by troops. No treated that the installation, Three units of about soldiers each were singing as they marched around the yard of the Minester soldiers each were parked in the barracks yard. Gate guards were rolls the epaulets.  3. Loaded with bathroom fintures, stoop hauled a load of boxes from the installation. Panzer Kaserne was vacant but guarded by sentries who were red-borde epaulets. Only some German craftshaen were seen in Camp Zossen. Two Gand a waitress stated that the Mindenburg Kaserne housed a driver treated to soldiers from other military posts, allegedly including Juster berg, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. Therefore, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. Therefore, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. Therefore, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. Therefore, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. Therefore, and the remaining work was finished during the coming days. The afforementioned waitress was by a cologel on 26 June for work in Camp Zossen in July. The colonel he was looking for six waitresses for the officers' mass in the came	anno met lukuta an kin kulum uma maka kata ana kulum kulum kulum kata kata kulum kulum kulum kata kata kata ka
1. No troops had moved into the barracks installations at Wuensdorf (Ninto Camp Zossen by 23 June 1951. However, there were runars that the totarrive any day. Small-scale repair work was performed in the Lutz which source believed would be charged to the account of the unit the move into the installation.  2. On 26 June, the Cambrai Raserne was partly occupied by troops. No treated that the installation, Three units of about soldiers each were singing as they marched around the yard of the Minestallation and the yard of the Minestallation are parked in the barracks yard. Gate guards were rollect barracks gate. In the barracks yard, Gate guards were rollect barracks gate. Included with bathroom fintures, stoop barracks gate. Included a load of boxes from the installation and a waitress stated that the Mindenburg Kaserne housed a driver treated to soldiers from other military posts, allegedly including Jueter berg, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. There work in tamp Zossen was largely completed, and the remaining work was finished during the coming days. The afformentioned waitress was by a cologel on 26 June for work in Camp Zossen in July. The colonel he was looking for six waitresses for the officers' mess in the camp	- Million (1875). La la Maria de la Maria de Mar
1. No troops had moved into the barracks installations at Wuensdorf (Ninto Camp Zossen by 23 June 1951. However, there were runars that the totarrive any day. Small-scale repair work was performed in the Lutz which source believed would be charged to the account of the unit the move into the installation.  2. On 26 June, the Cambrai Raserne was partly occupied by troops. No treated that the installation, Three units of about soldiers each were singing as they marched around the yard of the Minestallation and the yard of the Minestallation are parked in the barracks yard. Gate guards were rollect barracks gate. In the barracks yard, Gate guards were rollect barracks gate. Included with bathroom fintures, stoop barracks gate. Included a load of boxes from the installation and a waitress stated that the Mindenburg Kaserne housed a driver treated to soldiers from other military posts, allegedly including Jueter berg, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. There work in tamp Zossen was largely completed, and the remaining work was finished during the coming days. The afformentioned waitress was by a cologel on 26 June for work in Camp Zossen in July. The colonel he was looking for six waitresses for the officers' mess in the camp
into Camp Zossen by 23 June 1951. However, there were ruleous that the tearrive any day. Small-scale repair work was performed in the Luta which source believed would be charged to the account of the unit the move into the installation.  2. On 26 June, the Cambrai Asserne was partly occupied by troops. No treat was noticed. Sate guards wore red-bordered black epaulots. Vehicles were identified at the installation, Three units of about soldiers each were singing as they marched around the yard of the Hill soldiers each were parked in the barracks yard. Gate guards were red-borde epaulots. The part of the Hill spanned and a load of boxes from the installation.  25X1B  Panzer Kaserne was vacant but guarded by sentries who were red-borde epaulots. Only some German craftsmen were seen in Camp Zossen. Two Gand a waitress stated that the Hindenburg Kaserne housed a driver tresion waitress stated that the Hindenburg Kaserne housed a driver tresion soldiers from other military posts, allegedly including Juster berg, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. Therefore, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. Therefore, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. Therefore, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. Therefore, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. Therefore, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. Therefore, and the remaining work was finished during the coming days, the aforementioned waitress was by a colonel on 26 June for work in Camp Zossen in July. The colonel he was looking for six waitresses for the officers' mess in the camp	and the medit of the Color, and the color of
into Camp Zossen by 23 June 1951. However, there were ruleous that the to arrive any day. Small-scale repair work was performed in the Luta which source believed would be charged to the account of the unit the move into the installation.  2. On 26 June, the Cambrai Asserne was partly occupied by troops. No treat was noticed. Sate guards wore red-bordered black epaulots. Vehicles were identified at the installation, Three units of about soldiers each were singing as they marched around the yard of the Hill soldiers each were parked in the barracks yard. Gate guards were related by troops and a second to the installation and a second to the installation and a waitress stated that the Hindenburg kaserne housed a driver the which soldiers from other military posts, allegedly including Juster berg, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. There that this training unit would be transferred to another post. The rework in Camp Zossen was largely completed, and the remaining work was by a cologel on 26 June for work in Camp Zossen in July. The colonel he was looking for six waitresses for the officers' mess in the camp into Camp Zossen by 23 June 1951. However, there were ruleous that the tearrive any day. Small-scale repair work was performed in the Luta which source believed would be charged to the account of the unit the move into the installation.  2. On 26 June, the Cambrai Asserne was partly occupied by troops. No treat was noticed. Sate guards were red-bordered black epaulets. Vehicles were identified at the installation, Three units of about soldiers each were singing as they marched around the yard of the Hill soldiers each were parked in the barracks yard. Gate guards were related to hauled a load of boxes from the installation, barracks gate. I have a load of boxes from the installation barracks gate. I have a load of boxes from the installation barracks gate. I have a load of boxes from the installation barracks gate. I have a load of boxes from the installation barracks gate in Camp Zossen. Two Gand a waitress stated that the Hindenburg kaserne housed a driver transfer from other military posts, allegedly including Juster berg, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. There that this training unit would be transferred to another post. The rework in Camp Zossen was largely completed, and the remaining work was finished during the coming days. The aforementioned waitress was by a colonel on 26 June for work in Camp Zossen in July. The colonel he was looking for six waitresses for the officers' mess in the camp soldiers each were singing as they marched around the yard of the Mi 25X1B  About 15 trucks were parked in the barracks yard. Gate guards were rollect gate. I hauled a load of boxes from the instal barracks gate. I hauled a load of boxes from the instal epaulets. Only some German craftsmen were seen in Camp Zossen. Two Gand a waitness stated that the Mindenburg Kaserne housed a driver transich soldiers from other military posts, allegedly including Juster berg, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. There work in camp Zossen was largely completed, and the remaining work was finished during the coming days. The aforementioned waitness was by a cologel on 26 June for work in Camp Zossen in July. The colonel he was looking for six waitnesses for the officers' mess in the camp	al was to 25X1 aining activity 25X1B About 15 trucks were parked in the barracks yard. Gate guards were rollack epaulets.  barracks gate. The hauled a load of boxes from the instance of the paulets. Only some German craftsmen were seen in Camp Zossen. Two Gand a waitress stated that the Hindenburg Kaserne housed a driver truck which soldiers from other military posts, allegedly including Juster berg, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. There work in camp Zossen was largely completed, and the remaining work was finished during the coming days. The aforementioned waitress was by a cologel on 26 June for work in Camp Zossen in July. The colonel he was looking for six waitresses for the officers' mess in the camp	ndonimre Asserme.
epaulets. Only some German craftsmen were seen in Camp Zossen. Two German and a waitress stated that the Hindenburg Kaserne housed a driver track which soldiers from other military posts, allegedly including Juster berg, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. There that this training unit would be transferred to another post. The rework in Camp Zossen was largely completed, and the remaining work was finished during the coming days. The aforementioned waitress was by a colonel on 26 June for work in Camp Zossen in July. The colonel he was looking for six waitresses for the officers' mess in the camp	nd-hardered epaulets. Only some German craftsmen were seen in Camp Zossen. Two Gand a waitress stated that the Hindenburg Kaserne housed a driver transler which soldiers from other military posts, allegedly including Juster berg, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. Then that this training unit would be transferred to another post. The rework in Camp Zossen was largely completed, and the remaining work wa finished during the coming days. The aforementioned waitress was by a colonel on 26 June for work in Camp Zossen in July. The colonel he was looking for six waitresses for the officers' mess in the camp	rod his de berg, received courses in driving and took their driver's test. Ther that this training unit would be transferred to another post. The rework in Camp Zossen was largely completed, and the remaining work wa finished during the coming days. The aforementioned waitress was by a colonel on 26 June for work in Camp Zossen in July. The colonel he was looking for six waitresses for the officers' mess in the camp	erman charwomen that this training unit would be transferred to another post. The re work in Camp Zossen was largely completed, and the remaining work wa finished during the coming days. The aforementioned waitress was by a colonel on 26 June for work in Camp Zossen in July. The colonel he was looking for six waitresses for the officers mess in the camp	bog and Witten-finished during the coming days. The aforementioned waitress was by a colonel on 26 June for work in Camp Zossen in July. The colonel he was looking for six waitresses for the officers' mess in the camp	conditioning s to be
he was looking for six waitresses for the officers' mess in the came	s interviewed stated that direct dote do allite in access and adension diffing the con-	because large 25X1A	and months of the
* Consent. Another source reported that troops left Wildpark for aboard one train on 25 June. He also learned in Potsdam on 29 June 1 officer courses conducted in the Bornstedt Kriegsschule would allege	751 that the
to Ecssen.
25X1A  Ro Change in Slass.   Designation of the Class. Energy in the State of the Class.   Auth.: Ris one -	)
Date: 16-8-78	26
CLASSIFICATION SECRET/CONTROLAGE OFFICIAL OHLY	00