

	List cont'd Airfield	Date of Observation	Observation and Evaluation
25X1X	Questrow	3 July	After 1 August 1951, 30 settlement houses south of the field were to be evacuated since airfield was scheduled to be occupied. [REDACTED]
25X1X	Hagenow	20 June	Repair work in barracks buildings was done by 200 laborers. Landing field was being used as pasture. Field was guarded by Soviet Army guard detail. [REDACTED]
25X1X	Justerbog-Damm	12 June	One PO-2. Radio mast was 200 meters north-west of airfield. [REDACTED]
25X1X	Kamenz	Late-May	Field was guarded by Soviet guard detail since late-May 1951. According to rumors, field was to be made serviceable. Farmers had to mow grass on the landing field. [REDACTED]
25X1X	Luesse	13 April	Field, 250 x 1,000 meters, was located 800 meters southeast of Luesse. It was not guarded. No buildings, except for a hut in the northwestern corner of the field. PO-2s occasionally land there. [REDACTED]
25X1X		7 June	Size : 250 x 1,200 meters. No buildings. Major Rozaro, (fnu), and Major Romanov, (fnu), from Justerbog-Altes Lager airfield were in charge of the field. Field was continually being maintained. No indication of an intended enlargement. [REDACTED]
25X1X	Neuhausen	27 June	Landing field intact. No hangars or spur track. [REDACTED]
25X1X	Pasewalk-Franzfelde	25 May	Landing field used as pasture. Between 13 and 19 May 1951, about 300 Soviet soldiers from Pasewalk removed all splinterproof revetments built by Germans. [REDACTED]
25X1X	Paulinonaue	Mid-April	Construction of temporary buildings on northern edge of field.
25X1X		June	Temporary buildings occupied by about 150 air force soldiers. Field was used by about 10 to 15 ground attack aircraft and some PO-2s. No construction. [REDACTED]
25X1X	Rostock-Marienehe	9 June	No indications of reconditioning. Almost all buildings south of the landing field were destroyed. A hangar was being improved for a fish combine. [REDACTED]
25X1X		3 to 18 June	Field not guarded. No work on the three runways after 1945. VP-men and naval personnel occasionally trained on landing field. No indications of intended improvement. [REDACTED]
25X1X	Schwerin-Geerries	20 May	No reconditioning work. Adcock DF station dismantled. [REDACTED]
25X1X		2 June	No air force unit. Adcock DF station again erected. [REDACTED]

List cont'd

Airfield	Date of Observation	Observation and Evaluation
25X1X	22 June	Landing field 400 x 1,000 meters. No air force unit. [REDACTED]
25X1X	20 May	Quartering buildings occupied by naval police. No air force unit. [REDACTED]
25X1X	25 May	All the hangars destroyed. Runway and taxiways partially destroyed. About 50 naval policemen quartered in the barracks buildings. No air force unit. [REDACTED]
25X1X	2 June	Landing field not serviceable. No construction. [REDACTED]
25X1X	28 June	Hangars and barracks buildings destroyed. Field not guarded. [REDACTED]
25X1X	16 June	Installations at airfield destroyed. No reconditioning. [REDACTED]
25X1X	18 June	Both landing fields near Markgrafeneheide not serviceable. Installations of former seaplane base on the Breitling not serviceable. [REDACTED]
25X1X	12 June	Field occupied by three Yak-14s and one single-engine low-wing monoplane. Brueckenkopf Kaserne occupied by air force unit. [REDACTED]
25X1X	13 June	One Yak-14, two PO-2s, and two single-engine aircraft with in-line engines. Practice missions for AA units stationed at Elbe River bridges. [REDACTED]

CONFIDENTIAL
SECRET/CONFIDENTIAL/US OFFICIALS ONLY