U "YAW MYDIM", common'y referred to as the "brain" and key behind-thescenes schemer for the Burma Socialist Party has direct access to information from the Criminal Investigation Department (CID) of the Burma Police. Through pressure indirectly exerted by KTA' WEIN and the Socialist Party THAN !YAING, Deputy Inspector General of the CID, and U PC THAY, Deputy Inspector General, Southern Range, are virtually obliged to supply intelligence reports any time they are asked for.

- The Socialists have encouraged and allowed THAM MYAING and PE THAN to enter into business as partners in different firms contrary to the regulations of the Government Servants Conduct Rules. At any time when either proves intractable the Socialists can open the heretofore blind eye of the law and call for an investigation and subsequent prosecution which could possibly cost both their jobs.
- Meither THAN 'YAING nor PE THAN have proved really cooperative to the Socialists. Realizing, however, that they are being allowed to supplement their incomes for a purpose, they provide a minimum of information to KYAN NYTH and the Socialists. THAN TYAING'S allegiance is primarily to Thakin NU and the Government, rather than to individual Socialists, and he has stated that he would rather work with U WIM, the present Home Minister, than WYA" NYEIN.
- 4. KYAY NYTIN's informants on slightly lower levels within the Burma Police

U SOT MIMT, Superintendent of Police for Intelligence

U THAM SHWE, Superintendent of Police at Headquarters

U SAN YI, Assistant Convissioner of Police (Crime)

The Socialist Party can depend on U KYAN MINT, Commissioner of Police, who feels indebted to the party because of his promotions. KYAW MINT has recently made one important change, presumably at the request of the Socialist Party. U BA AYE, Deputy Cormissioner of Police, is being made
