50X1-HUM

1. Polish vessels returning to Gdynia from China carry several tons of silver each. The cases containing the silver are unloaded directly into a covered truck, which is then sealed and driven away under escort by the Railroad Police (SOK) to an undetermined destination.
2. The next most important cargo carried by these vessels is rice. It is consigned to Luszczarnia Ryzu at Gdynia, but its ultimate destination is unknown. Rice is not available on the open market.
