COUNTRY.	Approved For Kerease 200 1703/06 : CIA-RDF82-00457 ROC		70_
	Zerbst Fuel Depot and Airfield
			MARCO PERSONNELLA CESTA COMM
VALUATIO	N see helow PLACE OBTAINED 25X1A	d experience of the second	Sect I Production Conference - Live III
eraner (alle and a	102 7.1. d. F2 0		······································
	25X1A		Part of the State of
	AINED DATE PREPARED 10 September 1951		on Accept
EFERENC			Tracery.
AGES	2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)	·
EMARKS.	ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)	V	1
ar an merapan dar anya ang pengen	1000		1
ik ka kananan ay saamoo ay a	18 May 18 18 18 18 18 18 18 18 18 18 18 18 18	*	- St - St
	The Charles		1
ar etrorretaris deservantes et una b	25X1X		7
SOURCE		Pari V.A	Commen
25X1X		62.5	T. M.
	On 21 July 1951, a fuel dopot was observed at Zerbst airfield just sou
2.	A biplane landed at the field at 6:15 p.m. on 23 July. There was no fl the field on the other days of observation up to 29 July. Three biplan parked at the field. Four searchlights were continually in operation of the night of 29 July. No vehicular traffic was observed between 23 and According to an acquaintance of source, the runway was being an arged to	les worduring	e ly.
	A biplane landed at the field at 6:15 p.m. on 23 July. There was no fl the field on the other days of observation up to 29 July. Three biplan parked at the field. Four searchlights were continually in operation of the night of 29 July. No vehicular traffic was observed between 23 and according to an acquaintance of source, the runway was being enlarged thength of about 2,900 meters and, upon its completion, would reach about the communication road leading to the village of Straguth, runway, which had thickness of 30 to 50 cm, was provided with an additionate cover of 15 cm. The runway was 60 meters wide. The target date completion of the runway was said to be 15 August 1951. The jet fighte previously stationed at the field, is now at Koether a rfield and, moon	ying a les worn luring 29 Ju io a to t 200 The o onal c for the correl	e ly, tal ld on- e
	A biplane landed at the field at 6:15 p.m. on 23 July. There was no fl the field on the other days of observation up to 29 July. Three biplan parked at the field. Four searchlights were continually in operation of the night of 29 July. No vehicular traffic was observed between 23 and according to an acquaintance of source, the runway was being enlarged thength of about 2,900 meters and, upon its completion, would reach about meters from the communication road leading to the village of Straguth. The runway, which had thickness of 30 to 50 cm, was provided with an additionate cover of 15 cm. The runway was 60 meters wide. The target date completion of the runway was said to be 15 August 1951. The jet fighte proviously stationed at the field, is now at Koethen a rfield and, upon of construction, would beturn to Zerbst.  About 50 air force soldier stationed at the field.	ying a les worn luring 29 Ju io a to t 200 The o onal c for the correl	e ly. tal ld on- e
3.	A biplane landed at the field at 6:15 p.m. on 23 July. There was no fl the field on the other days of observation up to 29 July. Three biplan parked at the field. Four searchlights were continually in operation of the night of 29 July. No vehicular traffic was observed between 23 and According to an acquaintance of source, the runway was being enlarged t length of about 2,900 meters and, upon its completion, would reach about meters from the communication road leading to the village of Straguth. runway, which had thickness of 30 to 50 cm, was provided with an additicate cover of 15 cm. The runway was 60 meters wide. The target date completion of the runway was said to be 15 August 1951. The jet fighte previously stationed at the field, is now at Koethen a rfield and, upon of construction, would beturn to Merbst.  About 50 air force soldier stationed at the field.  25X1C	ying a les were luring 29 Ju 20 a to t 200 The o onal c for the r unit comples s were	e ly, tal ld on- e ection
3 . 25X1X	A biplane landed at the field at 6:15 p.m. on 23 July. There was no fl the field on the other days of observation up to 29 July. Three biplan parked at the field. Four searchlights were continually in operation of the night of 29 July. No vehicular traffic was observed between 23 and according to an acquaintance of source, the runway was being enlarged thength of about 2,900 meters and, upon its completion, would reach about meters from the communication road leading to the village of Straguth. The runway, which had thickness of 30 to 50 cm, was provided with an additionate cover of 15 cm. The runway was 60 meters wide. The target date completion of the runway was said to be 15 August 1951. The jet fighte proviously stationed at the field, is now at Koethen a rfield and, upon of construction, would beturn to Zerbst.  About 50 air force soldier stationed at the field.	ying a les were uring 29 July 200 The old on all comples were	e ly, tal ld on- e ection
3. 25X1X 	A biplane landed at the field at 6:15 p.m. on 23 July. There was no fl the field on the other days of observation up to 29 July. Three biplan parked at the field. Four searchlights were continually in operation of the night of 29 July. No vehicular traffic was observed between 23 and According to an acquaintance of source, the runway was being enlarged t length of about 2,900 meters and, upon its completion, would reach about meters from the communication road leading to the village of Straguth. runway, which had?thickness of 30 to 50 cm, was provided with an additi- crete cover of 15 cm. The runway was 60 meters wide. The target date completion of the runway was said to be 15 August 1951. The jet fighte proviously stationed at the field, is now at Koethen a rfield and, upon of construction, would beturn to Zerbst.  About 50 air force soldier stationed at the field.  25X1C On 7 August, about 30 workers and 1 biplane were seen. Trucks  left the field. A fuel dump seems to be locat the spur track which lead from Dootz into the wooded area cast of Noun and north of the target ranges of Zerbst airfield. * The track had t appearance of currently being used.	ying a les were uring 29 July 200 The old on all comples were	e ly, tal ld on- e ection
3. 25X1X ■ 1 25X1C	A biplane landed at the field at 6:15 p.m. on 23 July. There was no flethe field on the other days of observation up to 29 July. Three biplan parked at the field. Four searchlights were continually in operation of the night of 29 July. No vehicular traffic was observed between 23 and according to an acquaintence of source, the runway was being enlarged thength of about 2,900 meters and, upon its completion, would reach about meters from the communication road leading to the village of Straguth. The runway, which had? thickness of 30 to 50 cm, was provided with an additionate cover of 15 cm. The runway was 60 meters wide. The target date completion of the runway was said to be 15 August 1951. The jet fighte proviously stationed at the field, is now at Koethen airfield and, upon of construction, would seturn to Merbst.  About 50 air force soldier stationed at the field.  25X1C  On 7 August, about 30 workers and 1 biplane were seen. Trucks  left the field. A fuel dump seemed to be locat the spur track which lead from Dootz into the wooded area east of Noun and north of the target ranges of Zorbst airfield. * The track had tappearance of currently being used.	ying a les were uring 29 July 200 The old on all comples were	e ly, tal ld on- e e tion
3. 25X1X ■ 1. 25X1C	A biplane landed at the field at 6:15 p.m. on 23 July. There was no fl the field on the other days of observation up to 29 July. Three biplan parked at the field. Four searchlights were continually in operation of the night of 29 July. No vehicular traffic was observed between 23 and According to an acquaintance of source, the runway was being enlarged t length of about 2,900 meters and, upon its completion, would reach about meters from the communication road leading to the village of Straguth. runway, which had?thickness of 30 to 50 cm, was provided with an additi- crete cover of 15 cm. The runway was 60 meters wide. The target date completion of the runway was said to be 15 August 1951. The jet fighte proviously stationed at the field, is now at Koethen a rfield and, upon of construction, would beturn to Zerbst.  About 50 air force soldier stationed at the field.  25X1C On 7 August, about 30 workers and 1 biplane were seen. Trucks  left the field. A fuel dump seems to be locat the spur track which lead from Dootz into the wooded area cast of Noun and north of the target ranges of Zerbst airfield. * The track had t appearance of currently being used.	ying a les were uring 29 July 200 The old on all comples were	e ly, tal ld on- e e tion
3. 25X1X 	A biplane landed at the field at 6:15 p.m. on 23 July. There was no fl the field on the other days of observation up to 29 July. Three biplan parked at the field. Four searchlights were continually in operation of the night of 29 July. No vehicular traffic was observed between 23 and According to an acquaintence of source, the runway was being enlarged to length of about 2,900 meters and, upon its completion, would reach about meters from the communication road leading to the village of Straguth. runway, which had thickness of 30 to 50 cm, was provided with an additic crote cover of 15 cm. The runway was 60 meters wide. The target date completion of the runway was said to be 15 August 1951. The jet fighte proviously stationed at the field, is now at Koethen arfield and, upon of construction, would beturn to Zerbst.  About 50 air force soldier stationed at the field.  On 7 August, about 30 workers and 1 biplane were seen. Trucks  left the field. A fuel dump seems to be locat the spur track which lead from Dootz into the wooded area east of Noun and north of the target ranges of Zorbst airfield.  The track had t appearance of currently being used.  Comment. The storage capacity of this fuel dopot is unknown.	ying a les were uring 29 July 200 The old on all comples were	e ly, tal ld on- e e tion
3. 25X1X 	A biplane landed at the field at 6:15 p.m. on 23 July. There was no fl the field on the other days of observation up to 29 July. Three biplan parked at the field. Four searchlights were continually in operation of the night of 29 July. No vehicular traffic was observed between 23 and According to an acquaintence of source, the runway was being enlarged to length of about 2,900 meters and, upon its completion, would reach about meters from the communication road leading to the village of Straguth. runway, which had thickness of 30 to 50 cm, was provided with an additic crote cover of 15 cm. The runway was 60 meters wide. The target date completion of the runway was said to be 15 August 1951. The jet fighte proviously stationed at the field, is now at Koethen arfield and, upon of construction, would beturn to Zerbst.  About 50 air force soldier stationed at the field.  On 7 August, about 30 workers and 1 biplane were seen. Trucks  left the field. A fuel dump seems to be locat the spur track which lead from Dootz into the wooded area east of Noun and north of the target ranges of Zorbst airfield.  The track had t appearance of currently being used.  Comment. The storage capacity of this fuel dopot is unknown.	ying a les were uring 29 July 200 The old on all comples were	e ly, tal ld on- e e tion
3. 25X1X 	A biplane landed at the field at 6:15 p.m. on 23 July. There was no fl the field on the other days of observation up to 29 July. Three biplan parked at the field. Four searchlights were continually in operation of the night of 29 July. No vehicular traffic was observed between 23 and According to an acquaintence of source, the runway was being enlarged to length of about 2,900 meters and, upon its completion, would reach about meters from the communication road leading to the village of Straguth. runway, which had thickness of 30 to 50 cm, was provided with an additic crote cover of 15 cm. The runway was 60 meters wide. The target date completion of the runway was said to be 15 August 1951. The jet fighte proviously stationed at the field, is now at Koethen arfield and, upon of construction, would beturn to Zerbst.  About 50 air force soldier stationed at the field.  On 7 August, about 30 workers and 1 biplane were seen. Trucks  left the field. A fuel dump seems to be locat the spur track which lead from Dootz into the wooded area east of Noun and north of the target ranges of Zorbst airfield.  The track had t appearance of currently being used.  Comment. The storage capacity of this fuel dopot is unknown.	ying a les were uring 29 July 200 The old on all comples were	e ly, tal ld on- e e tion
25X1X 	A biplane landed at the field at 6:15 p.m. on 23 July. There was no fl the field on the other days of observation up to 29 July. Three biplan parked at the field. Four searchlights were continually in operation of the night of 29 July. No vehicular traffic was observed between 23 and According to an acquaintance of source, the runway was being enlarged t length of about 2,900 meters and, upon its completion, would reach about nevers from the communication road leading to the village of Straguth. runway, which had thickness of 30 to 50 cm, was provided with an additicance cover of 15 cm. The runway was 60 meters wide. The target date completion of the runway was said to be 15 August 1951. The jet fighte proviously stationed at the field, is now at Koethen airfield and, upon of construction, would beturn to Zerbst.  About 50 air force soldior stationed at the field.  On 7 August, about 30 workers and 1 biplane were seen. Trucks left the spur brack which lead from Bootz into the wooded area cast of Noun and north of the target ranges of Zerbst airfield.  The track had t appearance of currently being used.  Comment. The storage capacity of this fuel depot is unknown.	ying a les were uring 29 July 200 The old on all comples were	e ly, tal ld on- e e tion
25X1X 	A biplane landed at the field at 6:15 p.m. on 23 July. There was no flethe field on the other days of observation up to 29 July. Three biplan parked at the field. Four searchlights were continually in operation of the night of 29 July. No vehicular traffic was observed between 23 and According to an acquaintance of source, the runway was being onlarged thength of about 2,000 meters and, upon its completion, would reach about the commication road leading to the village of Straguth. Trunway, which had thickness of 30 to 50 cm, was provided with an additionable completion of the runway was said to be 15 August 1951. The jet fighte proviously stationed at the field, is now at Koethen airfield and, upon of construction, would return to Zerbst.  About 50 air force soldior stationed at the field.  25X1C  On 7 August, about 30 workers and 1 biplane were seen. Trucks  Left the field. A fuel dump seemed to be locat the spur track which lead from Bootz into the wooded area cest of Noun and north of the target ranges of Zerbst airfield.  The track had t appearance of currently being used.  Comment of the storage capacity of this fuel depot is unknown.	ying a les were uring 29 July 200 The old on all comples were	e ly, tal ld on- e e tion
25X1X 	A biplane landed at the field at 6:15 p.m. on 23 July. There was no fl the field on the other days of observation up to 29 July. Three biplan parked at the field. Four searchlights were continually in operation of the night of 29 July. No vehicular traffic was observed between 23 and According to an acquaintance of source, the runway was being enlarged the length of about 2,900 meters and, upon its completion, would reach about nevers from the communication road leading to the village of Straguth. Tunway, which had thickness of 30 to 50 cm, was provided with an additionate completion of the runway was said to be 15 August 1951. The jet fighte proviously stationed at the field, is now at Koethen airfield and, upon of construction, would return to Merbst.  About 50 air force soldior stationed at the field.  25X1C  On 7 August, about 30 workers and 1 biplane were seen. Trucks  1 off the field. A fuel dump seemed to be located the spur track which lead from Dootz into the wooded area east of Noun and north of the target ranges of Morbat airfield.  The track had the appearance of currently being used.  CLASSIFICATION. The storage capacity of this fuel depot is unknown.  Deciment No. 7  No Change In Class.   Deciment No. 7  No Change In Class.   Decimate In Class.   Deci	ying a les work luring 29 Ju lo a to t 200 The ol onal c for the r unit comples were	e ly, tal ld on- e e tion
3. 25X1X 	A biplane landed at the field at 6:15 p.m. on 23 July. There was no fl the field on the other days of observation up to 29 July. Three biplan parked at the field. Four searchlights were continually in operation of the night of 29 July. No vehicular traffic was observed between 23 and According to an acquaintsnee of source, the runway was being enlarged the length of about 2,900 meters and, upon its completion, would reach about nevers from the communication road leading to the village of Straguth. Frunway, which had the completion of the runway was 60 meters wide. The target date completion of the runway was said to be 15 August 1951. The jet fighte proviously stationed at the field, is now at Koethen airfield and, upon of construction, would return to Merbst.  About 50 air force soldior stationed at the field.  25X1C  On 7 August, about 30 workers and 1 biplane were seen. Trucks  left the field. A fuel dump seemed to be locat the spur track which lead from Bootz into the wooded area cast of Noun and north of the target ranges of Morbst airfield,  The track had t appearance of currently being used.  CLASSIFICATION.  CLASSIFICATION.  Decement No. 7  No Change in Class.	ying a les work luring 29 Ju lo a to t 200 The ol onal c for the r unit comples were	e ly, tal ld on- e e tion

Approved For Release 2001/03/06: CIA-RDP82-00457R008800130007-8

CONSIDERATION SOUTH OF STREET OF STREET

25X1A

*** Comment. The transfer to Koethen of the two fighter regiments is also confirmed by reported construction work. The construction work is limited to the reinforcement and repair of the range surface, the building of a taxiway, grading of the landing field and a short extension of the runway. The target date for the completion of the work has not been reported by other sources.

25X1A

Comment. This fuel dump is reported for the first time.

CONFRENTIAL
CONFEDENTIAL
CONTROL/US OFFICIALS ONLY