In connection with the recent Berlin Communist Youth Festival, attended by a group of 85 students from the University of Trieste, Italian student leaders in Trieste, directed by a certain Spagnul and a certain Dei Rossi, had previously warned the Italian Mission in Trieste that the Communists were trying to recruit a large delegation to attend the Youth Festival. Spagnul and De Rossi had also arranged to have a non-Communist student penetrate the delegation. The Italian Mission in Trieste granted passports to the 85 genuine delegates, but allegedly refused to grant a passport to the non-Communist representative.
