During September 1951 the Central and South China Military Area (CSCMA) Command in Hankow ordered the CSCMA Uniform Factory at Tungchiaochang (東較昌), in the Canton area, to complete the manufacture of 150,000 Chinese Communist Army uniforms by the end of November. Purchasing agents of this factory are now in Hong Kong attempting to obtain the required cloth. This factory is also contracting with privately operated factories in the Canton area for the manufacture of some of these Chinese Communist Army uniforms at JMP 3,000 (sic) each, with the cloth to be supplied by the CSCMA military uniform factory.
