1. A factory identified as the "Tovarna okovja in plocevinastih izdelkov", and known by the abbreviated name, "Tobi", is located in the area between Linbus and Bistrica. The factory is housed in a building approximately 35 years old and is described as being in poor condition except for one section, which has been completely modernized and is used for military production.
2. The principal products of the factory consist of various types of chains, hinges, metal plates, utensils, and hardware. The section engaged in military production manufactures bolts for rifles and sub-machine guns.
3. The director of the military section is Lt. Zvonko Tadic and the foreman of the workshop is Franc Lesnik.
4. The raw material for military production comes from Jasenice and the finished products are sent to "Crvena Zastava" (Red Star), in Kragujevac, at the rate of one car load per month.
