1. The only people in Rumania who are content with the Regime are those who are employed in factories, cooperatives, and other Government organizations. Persons who conform to the new Regime can always find work and are satisfied with the Administration. Wealthy people and people in moderate circumstances are among the dissatisfied.
2. Most of the Armenians in Rumania who have emigrated from Turkey have become Communists.
3. Only Russian, Hungarian and Czechoslovak films are shown in Bucharest and most of those shown are propaganda films.
4. On the trains from Bucharest to Constanta travel control commences at Cernavoda, where everyone is asked to show his Militia permit to enter Constanta. It is rather difficult to obtain these permits from the Militia.
