1. A coordinated attack by 1,000 Burma Communist Party (BCP) insurgents who have been undergoing training in China together with NAW SENG's group, also China-trained, is expected in January or February 1952. One of the objectives will be the isolation of Lashio. This attacking force will be called the Burma Liberation Army. Communist China will extend recognition and will supply this force with arms and ammunition.<sup>1</sup>
2. The BCP is very active around Meiktila (95-50; 20-55), Kyaukse (96-08; 21-36), and in Sagaing District.
3. AUNG GYI, who recently arrived at the BCP Headquarters at Yanaung (96-00; 20-30) from China, received instructions from THAN TUN and returned to Peiping. AUNG GYI is expected to go to Moscow very shortly.
4. A Russia-China-Burma Friendship Association will be formed upon the return of Thakin LWIN from Moscow. Secret meetings on this subject are being held between the Burma Workers' and Peasants' Party and the Soviet and Chinese Embassies in Rangoon.

Seven or eight KMT military personnel who escaped from the Burmese internment camp at Meiktila on 11 November are still at large, including Major General YANG Kuan-pin (aka YANG Wen-lin).

Comment. Although source stated definitely that these insurgents were trained in China, he was not entirely clear on the direction of this attack. Source mentioned two points of origin, the Namtu (97-24; 23-05)-Mong Mit (96-40; 23-07) area of Burma and the Mengmao (97-52; 24-02)-Naungtao (probably Naungtun, 97-41; 23-51) area of Yunnan. Possibly source meant that BCP insurgents would infiltrate from their training bases in Yunnan to the Mong Mit and Namtu areas where they would begin fighting. 25X1A 25X1A 25X1A

Comment. [REDACTED] reported plans for a full-scale offensive in November by the BCP, PVO, CP(B), and Karens which would coincide with the return to Burma of NAW SENG. [REDACTED] * indicated a possible invasion of Burma by NAW SENG in December or January. [REDACTED] reported that NAW SENG with some 270 followers had begun infiltrating Burma. This report, [REDACTED] is the first to make specific reference to the support of China-trained BCP insurgents.
