1. In mid-November 1951 large quantities of Soviet-made heavy guns, tanks and bazookas were shipped to East China from North China.
 2. In late November 3 Field Army Headquarters called a meeting in Shanghai of division cadre members to discuss training troops in the use of the new weapons and to stress Army-Navy cooperation in future training. Some of these cadres were chosen at this meeting to be sent to Korea to observe battle conditions.
