The dissatisfaction of the Bulgarian people with the current regime and

- Soviet exploitation has become more openly and publicly manifest in recent times.
- 2. In the Rila Planina, organized armed underground units currently are active. Other resistance movements in the country make use of posters and leaflets to harass the regime. In the past month there was extensive activity of this type in Bryagovo villagelin the Kula district. Because of the posters and leaflets, which demanded an end to the persecution of peaceful people, many peasants were arrested. Nothing could be learned from them although confessions were extorted.
