SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

- The Free Chinese Youth Association of East Java, known in Indonesian as Perserikatan Pemuda Tiong Hwa Djawa Timor and in Chinese as Tung Chua (Chao) Wa Chung Hwa Tzu-Yu Ch'ing Nien Hsieh Hui (東爪哇中華自由青年協會), was officially established in Surabaya on 10 November 1951. Its headquarters is in the Grand Hotel, Djalan Bami 3-7, Surabaya. Although the owner of the Grand Hotel, YANG Siau Tsung (YANG Shao-chen - 楊少珍), founded the association, he intends to stay in the background and not become an officer. The association's specific objective is to take active counter measures against the Chinese Communists in Indonesia. Plans for propagnada work and the collection of information are now being formulated.¹
- The association is expanding very slowly, since members are admitted only after careful screening to prevent infiltration. Total membership, including officers, is now 27. The average age of the members is 22, most of them being either students, teachers, or businessmen. The officers are:

Chairman	CHAN Chang Tun (CH'EN Chang-t'uan - 陳長端)	Businessman Tjantian Tengah Gg 1/25
