- 1. On 31 May 1951 large-scale digging was observed to have taken place in the residential rectangle formed by Dezza, Ajtosi, Vorosilov, and Thokoly streets in Budapest (District XIV) immediately to the east of the City Park. Air-raid shelters have been provided for houses in this area for Russians and high-ranking Hungarians. Matyas Rakosi, Jozsef Revai, and Gabor Peter are said to have houses in this area.
- 2. On 5 June huge mounds of earth, perhaps 15 ft. x 10 ft. x 20 ft., blocked the intersection of Abonyi and Szabo J. utca. The latter is a dead-end street going west from Thokoly utca. It is not known how much earth has been carted away.
