a structural change in 1952. It was said that the unit, which had the character of a regiment at the time of observation, would be brought up to the status of a Loviet brigade, with the Kommandos empanding into regiments, the abtellungen expanding into battalions, and the Euerge expanding into companies. Some of the officers of the VPD had already been told to familiarize themselves with the functions of company contanders.

25X1	Comment. VP Kommandeur von sitzleben was still on the staff of the 1st service in the fall of 1951. The information reversion to quit police principle weapons makes it appear unlikely that the VPDs could be expanded to the size of brigades, as state in the present report
