1. Hauptabteilung Export of the DDR Ministry of Foreign Trade asked VEB Carl Zeiss, Jena, on 21 March 1952, if the plant could deliver phototheodolites and cinematic theodolites (Kinotheodolite). Zeiss answered on 27 March that production of these devices had been banned by Control Council Law, and that therefore none had been produced in 1951.
2. [REDACTED] permission to resume development of the theodolites had been granted. The plant now plans on being able to deliver a phototheodolite and an evaluation device by 1954.
3. Zeiss emphasized that any resumption of development of these theodolites was confidential. The plant authorized the Ministry to notify satellite nations of the new production [REDACTED]
