1. During the period of 29 to 31 May, railroad cars consigned to the Bornstedt Kriegsschule were unloaded at the Potsdam railroad station. During the same period, freight cars were loaded at the Wildpark railroad station with billeting equipment from the Ruinenberg and Adolf Hitler casernes. After 29 May, the Garde-Du-Corps Kaserne on Stalinallee was reoccupied. Only vehicles belonging to the GDFG were observed transporting billeting equipment to and from the above mentioned barracks.
2. Since 25 May, numerous units previously stationed in Wuensdorf and Zossen have been moved. Twenty-two armored reconnaissance vehicles were loaded on railroad cars on 27 May, 28 T-34/85 tanks and 20 x 57 mm AT guns on 28 May, and trucks with billeting equipment during the period of 25 to 31 May. Units, allegedly from Potsdam, were established in tent camps between the permanent camp (Stammlager) in Zossen and Wuensdorf. No changes in the AAA emplacements at the Wuensdorf railroad station were observed.
3. During the period of 21 to 26 May, units from the tank school and the Lutz Kaserne in Wuensdorf were transported by vehicles of the 3rd Guards Mechanized Army to Kloster Zinna, north of Jueterbog.
4. On 25 May, workers employed at the Soviet in Wuensdorf were informed that the unit with which they were employed would move to the former Adolf Hitler camp in Forst Zinna in late May.
5. From 30 May to 1 June, four troop trains were dispatched from Wuensdorf to Potsdam and one troop train from Luckenwalde to Wildpark.*
6. On 26 and 28 May, one troop train each of the 57th Guards Mechanized Rifle Division and of the 21st Guards Mechanized Division were dispatched from the Mechterstaedt and Lossa railroad stations to Neubuckow.**

*  Comment: This report indicates that troop movements between Potsdam, Wuensdorf and the Jueterbog area continued after 1 June. It can now be stated with a fair degree of certainty that the Adolf Hitler Kaserne in Potsdam will be evacuated by the offices of the Chief of Rear Services of the GOFG and that this installation will be reoccupied by units previously stationed in Wuensdorf. It appears that headquarters' units of the 3rd Guards Mechanized Army will be quartered in the Forst Zinna area as well as in Neues Lager, west of Jueterbog.

**  Comment: It is believed that the two trains carried AAA units of the two divisions to the Wustrow AAA firing range.
