25X1 1. Dr. Hans Klein, a former Nazi and now a naturalized [REDACTED] citizen, has said that he is being persecuted by the [REDACTED] University. Dr. Klein, who is a lecturer at the University, also says that this action on the part of the Secretary-General apparently has official approval.

25X1 2. The University has reduced Dr. Klein from special class to first class official and has also denied him home leave to which he says he is entitled. In addition the University has requested Dr. Klein to refund 30,000 baht in salary paid to him at the open market rate for pounds sterling after which the money would be paid back to him at the official rate. He would lose about 5,000 baht in this transaction.

25X1 [REDACTED] Comment. The University may be trying to get rid of Dr. Klein because he is a trouble-maker and he has a persecution complex. However, it may all be a part of an anti-foreign campaign.
