25X1 1. The Kilian Gyorgy Officers' Training School is located at the Szolnok airfield; [redacted]

25X1 2. Only volunteers are admitted to this school. Enrollment is limited to candidates who have been members of paramilitary organizations - either of the SZHSZ (Fighters for Freedom) or of the OMRE (Union of Hungarian Aviators) and who have had preliminary training in either gliders or motor aircraft. The political reliability of the candidates is examined by a commission of the Communist Party, which also checks the reliability of the employers of the factory or industry where the candidates have been employed. The sons of bourgeois families are rarely admitted. Air Force personnel, showing promise as aviators, are also eligible for admission to the school.

3. The training is theoretical as well as practical and lasts for one year. During this period, the students take examinations labeled A, B, C, and AB.

4. After one year at the Szolnok school, the successful candidates are sent for another year to the airfields of Szekesfehervar, Budaors, Kecskemet, and Kunmadaras, where they will receive training as fighter or reconnaissance pilots. The staffs of instruction are mixed, consisting of both Russian and Hungarian officers.

25X1 5. The superintendent of the Szolnok school is Major Istvan Tuba, [redacted] an officer of the old Hungarian Air Force. The following officers are also on the staff:

- Lieutenant Mihaly Gonda, instructor
- Lieutenant Bela Debreceni, instructor
- Lieutenant Imre Fekete, information officer.
