Post-Mortem on NIE 80/90-61
Latin American Reactions to Developments in and with respect to Cuba
dated 18 July 1961

We recognize the need to determine more precisely the following:

- a. The extent to which Latin American groups following the Castro line are directly linked with, or act under instructions from, the Cuban regime.
- b. The extent to which groups aligned with Castro are linked with or directed by the Communists as distinct from Castro.
- c. The dimensions of the Castro and/or the Communist effort among the peasantry in the various Latin American countries, especially in the Andean countries of South America and others with large Indian communities.
