7. (Unclassified - THW) CONSTITUENT Troy Gustavson, Press Secretary to Senator Richard S. Schweiker (R., Pa.), called stating that a constituent, [redacted] was working on a Master's thesis and had asked the Senator to see if he could arrange to allow [redacted] to come out to the Agency to view U-2 documents recently released under the Freedom of Information Act. I asked Gustavson to find out specifically what he was interested in and perhaps we could provide copies, but I discouraged Gustavson from any idea that the constituent could come to the Agency.

9. (Internal Use Only - CM) LIAISON At the request of [redacted] DDI/CSS, I called the office of the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on Foreign Economic Policy and asked if we might receive a copy of a new Subcommittee publication known as "Arab Money Weapon." The formal title of the document is "International Debt, the Banks and U. S. Foreign Policy." A Subcommittee staffer promised to send a copy to us.

10. (Internal Use Only - CM) CONSTITUENT [redacted] a representative of [redacted] who has been in touch with OLC in the past (more recently on 27 July), called to report that he is in Washington and has a new venture in mind that he would like to discuss with the Agency. I asked him to describe the venture in a letter to us which would permit appropriate consideration. He said he would do so. (See Memorandum for the Record.)
