

FOR PUBLIC AFFAIRS STAFF

PROGRAM News

STATION WAVA Radio

DATE July 29, 1966

4:00 PM

CITY Washington, DC

HELMS APOLOGIZES

NEWSCASTER: "Newly appointed Director Richard Helms of the Central Intelligence Agency has apologized personally to Senator J. William Fulbright. Helms took full blame for endorsing a newspaper editorial that criticized Fulbright, although he said somebody else in the CIA had written the letter under his name.

"Senator Wayne Morse said Helms should resign because of his behavior. But Fulbright called such a step premature."