Source Subcommittee on Proparedness Investigation, the Director's meeting with the Committee for 2:30 p.m., 6 October. 11. In response to Representative Bow's request of yesterday afternoon, a tentative meeting with and Mr. George Carver was scheduled for temorrow afternoon, 2:00 p.m., in the Congressman's office. 12. Mrs. Tucker, in the office of Senator Frank J. Lausche, called and said the Senator was personally interested in being placed on the mailing list for the TPIS books on the USSR and Eastern Europe. Arrangements are being made for the Senator to be included. Mrs. Tucker was advised that this was being done strictly on a personal basis for the Senator and that we would appreciate their not discussing his receipt of this publication outside of their office.
