Commanding officer: a captain assisted by about 16 officers

The unit goes out every day from 0700 to 1300 for drill, in platoons of 45-50 men each, under an officer

50X1-HUM

16 men are recruits

who are undergoing a 7-8 month training period after which they are sorted for unidentified units (K.N.O.T. or infantry?).

After each school is classified, other recruits come in for the same training period.

Yugoslav Guards at the border, the number of escapes grows daily.

Those who escape take refuge in Italy to avoid military service and forced labor.

Yugoslav propaganda tries to make people believe that refugees in Italy suffer from hunger and bad treatment and are kept in prison. Such propaganda is proven false by letters from refugees to their families describing the assistance and kindly treatment accorded them in Italy. Their families receive parcels of clothing and food from the countries to which the refugees have emigrated through the I. R. O.

Most of the young people, therefore, hope to emigrate to the western countries for a better future
