

25X1

Page Denied

ARMY review completed.

CONFIDENTIAL

25X1

2

25X1

MISCELLANEOUS SOVIET ARMY TRAINING, MATERIEL AND MOBILIZATION DATA

25X1

[redacted] late July and/or early August 1956 [redacted] the summer training areas of the 8th (type unk) Division and the 11th Gds Tank Division in the SHMORKAU-SHEPNITZ-KOENIGSERUECK area.<sup>1</sup> [redacted] both these divisions used adjoining areas as their summer training area and unidentified elements of both divisions were there [redacted] [redacted] 2.

25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1

2.

25X1

[redacted] the headquarters' elements of the 1st Mecz Army had an approximately 10-day CPX (Shtabniye Zanya-tiya) in July 1956 in an unidentified area approximately 10 km from headquarters in a general northeasterly direction.

25X1

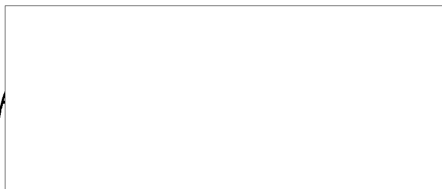

25X1

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

3

25X1

25X1

[redacted] new unidentified tanks were in the regiments of the 11th Gds Tk Div.

25X1

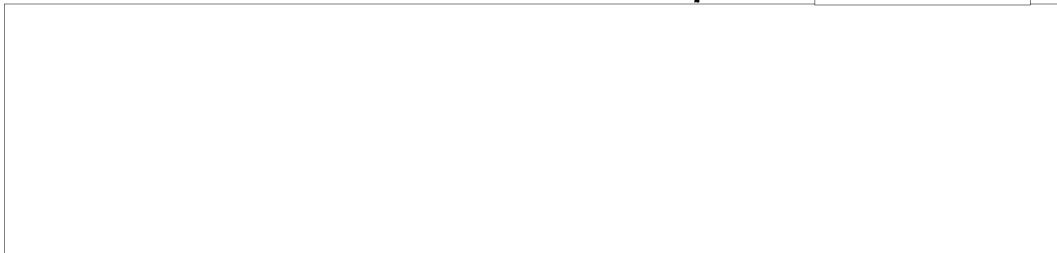

10.

25X1

[redacted] ordinarily the first orders for demobilization arrived about September. [redacted]

25X1
25X1
25X1

those participating in the recently publicized departure of Soviet troops were possibly from a 3d (?) Army [redacted]

25X1
25X1

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

4

12.

25X1

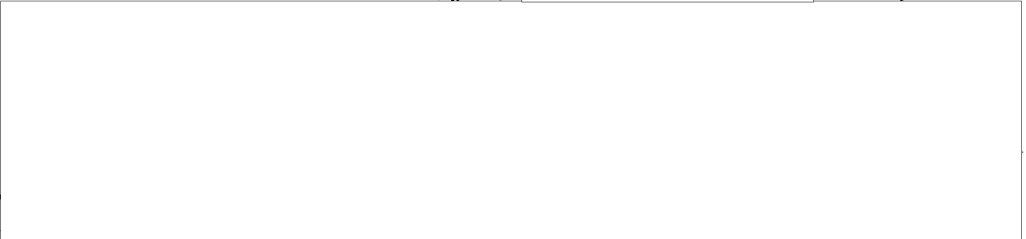

[redacted] an unknown number of high-ranking officers in Soviet, Polish, German and Czech uniforms, assembling at the Officers' Club of the 3d (7) Army [redacted] in July 1956.

25X1

25X1

25X1

13.

Other than 11th and 8th (type-unk) Divisions using this area as summer camp, [redacted] one unidentified caserne located in KOENIGSRUECK housing more than one unit, one which was an artillery regiment. [redacted]

25X1

25X1

25X1

all these unidentified units were there year round. [redacted]

[redacted] the 9th Tank Div [redacted] used the Koenigsbrueck area in 1949 and in 1951. After 1952 the 9th Tank Div used the ZEITHAIN/OSCHATZ, RIESA areas for winter and summer quarters.

14.

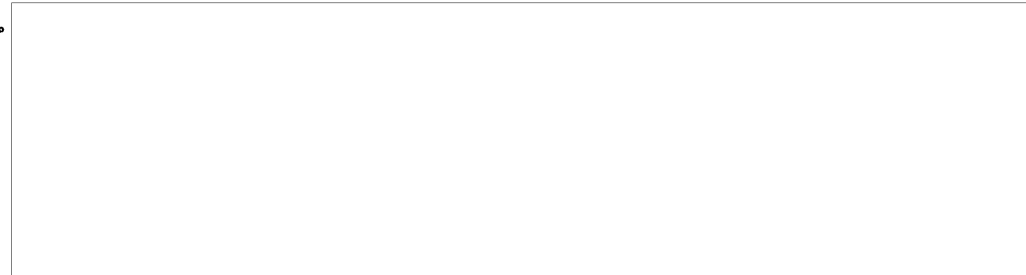

25X1

[redacted] the ranges in KOENIGSRUECK are large and have tankadromes, avtodrome (vehicle course), small arms, and artillery ranges. 3.

25X1

15.

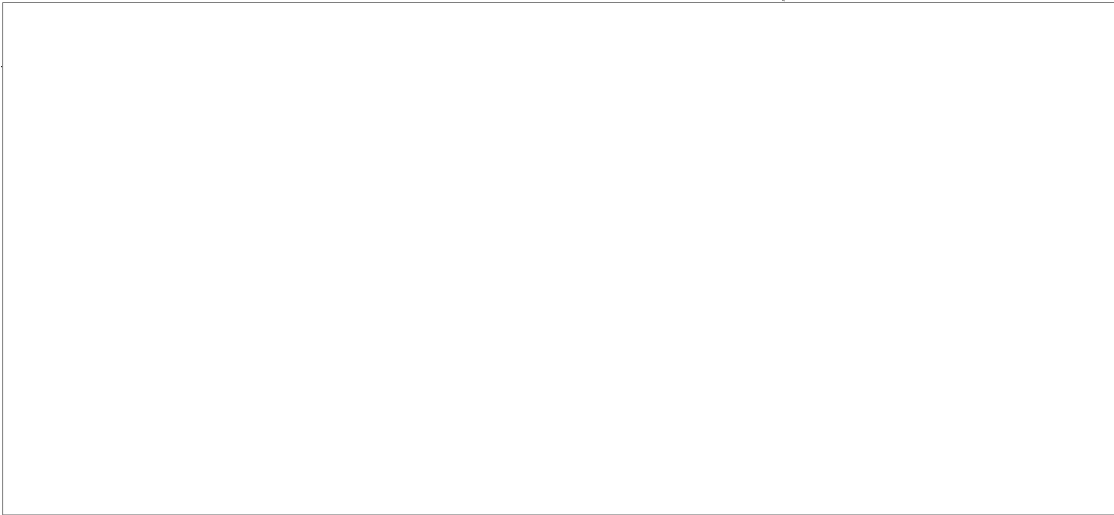

25X1

CONFIDENTIAL

25X1

CONFIDENTIAL

5

25X1

[redacted] the T/34 and an unidentified tank of the JS series [redacted] seen in 1949. In 1956 in RIESA, at the headquarters of the 108th Regiment of the 9th Tank Div [redacted] an unidentified tank in the tank park of this regiment [redacted] described as having a lower silhouette than the T/34 and being slightly wider (probably T/54). Total number unknown: [redacted]

25X1

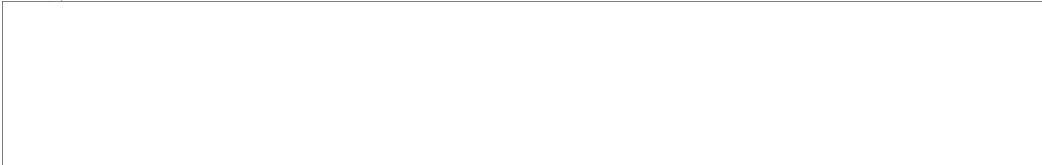

25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1

[redacted] the annual inspections of one or both of the divisions was being held in August rather than in September.

25X1

25X1

[redacted] in 1956 there was a noticeable decrease of transients returning to the USSR and

25X1

3. [redacted] Comment:

[redacted] if units from DRESDEN did use the KOENIGSERUECK area, they would travel by road rather than by rail because of the short distance involved.

25X1

CONFIDENTIAL