DESCRIPTION OF MATERIAL

65042. An outside view of the conference hall of the Peking meeting of the Council of the World Federation of Democratic Youth.

CIA-P-52887 51642. After his speech on the first item of the agenda, Albert Claude Lorenzi, head of the French delegation, is warmly greeted by a Viet-Nam youth representative.

51647. As soon as the Viet-Nam representative (first from right) concluded his speech on the first item of the agenda, he is presented by a member of the French delegation (second from right) with a beautifully decorated relay race baton engraved with the names of two French peace partisans and friends of the Viet-Nam people, Henri Martin and Raymonde Dien. This baton representing friendship and unity was carried from the southern border of France to Paris last month.

CIA-P-52888 51735. Gregorio Lopez Raimundo, outstanding Spanish anti-fascist fighter, returns to his seat amidst thunderous applause after speech on the first item of the agenda.

51644. Before the second day's session begins, the youth representatives read Peking's newspapers to see how they published the news and newsphotos on the opening of the Peking meeting of the Council of the W.F.D.Y. In the photo, from right to left: Bernini, President of W.F.D.Y., Hu Yao-pang,
